NEW HOME OF DELTA UPSILON FRATERNITY NEARS COMPLETION

Delta Upsilon fraternity will move into this new stone home, now nearing completion, this fall. The house is diagonally across the street from the Delta Chi house, on the corner of Parsons avenue and College street. It was designed by Sorey Vahlberg and built by the McAlester Construction Co.

Washington Alumni Toast Bizzell
Distinguished Oklahomans Attend Luncheon in His Honor

The University of Oklahoma Association of Washington, D.C., held the most successful meeting since its organization on April 9, 1929. The meeting took the form of a luncheon in honor of Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, and was held in the Gray room of the City club. Doctor Bizzell was in Washington for the annual meeting of state university presidents.

The most distinguished assemblage of Oklahomans that ever attended a club meeting were present. Among those present were Patrick J. Hurley, B. M. Parmenter of Lawton, assistant attorney general, Arthur H. Geissler, of Oklahoma, minister to Guatemala, Ezra Brainard of Muskogee, member of the interstate commerce commission, Wilburn C. Cartwright of McAlester, member of congress, U. S. Stone of Norman, member of congress, Parker LaMoore, representative of the Daily Oklahoman in Washington, and Lester B. Gunn, a visitor from Oklahoma City.

The meeting was presided over by J. Thad Baker of Ardmore, president of the association, who acted as toastmaster.

Dr. Bizzell addressed the association and told of the progress of the university, the broadening of its scope of work, raising of curriculum and the progress of the new building plan. He further predicted a bright future for the institution. During the course of his address, Doctor Bizzell stated that next to the White House grounds, the campus of the university was the most beautiful spot he had been privileged to view. The toastmaster assured Doctor Bizzell of the interest in the university by the association and wished both him and the university continued success.

Other speeches were made by Patrick J. Hurley, B. M. Parmenter, Arthur H. Geissler, Ezra Brainard, Wilburn C. Cartwright, and U. S. Stone. Others present were William G. Cullen, vice president, Lieutenant A. M. Pigg, treasurer, Mrs. Wilburn C. Cartwright of McAlester, Mrs. U. S. Stone of Norman, Mrs. Parker LaMoore of Oklahoma City, Elizabeth Cullen, Ellis W. Manning, Mrs. John B. McKeel, Miss Winifred W. Kinnebrew, Miss Mabel C. Alexander, Herbert C. Hoover, Hiram W. Hummer of Henryetta, William W. Duncan of Westville and Floyd L. Swindell of Ardmore.

The president announced that the annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers would be held in the latter part of the month.
