Milton Hopkins, associate professor of plant sciences. The wedding date has not been announced. Miss Hewlett is a graduate of Adelphi College, Garden City, Long Island, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Dr. Hopkins, who has been on the University faculty since 1936, holds degrees from Amherst College, Amherst, Massachusetts, and Harvard University. His fraternity is Phi Gamma Delta.

Dr. Findley Weaver, professor of marketing on leave of absence, has been transferred from the Dallas branch of the Office of Price Administration to the national office in Washington, D. C. Dr. Weaver is in the industrial price analysis section of O.P.A.

Miss Lucile Watkins, Barnsdall, senior student in the School of Pharmacy, and Lt. Raymond Joyce, Sauk Rapids, Minnesota, former assistant professor of military science and tactics, were married April 9 in Norman. Lieutenant Joyce was transferred to Fort Sill when the Army program at the University was curtailed. He is a graduate of Minnesota State Teachers College at St. Cloud.

The World as Spectacle, by Dr. Gustav Mueller, chairman of the department of philosophy, is being published by the Philosophical Library in New York City. Dr. Mueller's book will be released simultaneously with Benedetto Croce's Politics and Morals, Franz Werfel's Faith and Culture, and Jacques Maritan's Songs of Descartes.

Stewart Harral, '36ma, director of University press relations, spoke last month at the annual meeting of the American College Publicity Association and a monthly meeting of the Chicago Publicity Club in Chicago.

Henry L. Kampfhoener, director of the School of Architecture, served as architect for the recently completed remodeling of the offices of the Cleveland County Health Department in Norman. Within the same wall limits, Mr. Kampfhoener doubled the working space of the department. An article by him describing the job appeared in a recent issue of Pencil Points magazine. He and Dr. Gertrude Nielsen, director of the Health Department, collaborated on a similar article for the summer issue of the National Public Health Journal.

Mrs. Bill G. Bauman, Jr. (Marjorie Smiley, '42journ), is new secretary of the School of Journalism. Her husband, Lieutenant Bauman, '42bus, is with the Marine Corps in the Pacific.