M. Clyde Bogle, '02ba, Norman, recently entered the Infirmary of Rosewood Manor Nursing Home, for treatment of a leg ailment.* Edgar L. Harris, '08, and Mrs. Harris, Norman, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Harris, a member of the Honored Alumni Club (HAC), has been active in the OU Alumni Association and has served as acting president of the Class of 1965 since 1950. Mrs. Harris was manager of OU’s Extension Division dining room for 18 years.* Mrs. Paul G. Darrough, '18ba, Norman, has been elected president of the Western Oklahoma chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Association.* A. H. Richards, '31geol, has retired after 23 years with the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio. He was a vice president and production general manager.* William J. Fell, '31eng, Tulsa consulting engineer, has received the “Engineer of the Year” award presented by the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Society of Professional Engineers.* Dr. Blanche Sommers, '31phrm, has been recently recognized for her 23 years of service to OU when Alpha Phi Omega, men’s service organization, dedicated its spring pledge class to her.* Neale Boyd, '31bus, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Oklahoma Mortgage Bankers Association.* J. Don Garrison, '26ed, '30med, has joined the City National Bank and Trust Co. in Norman as business development officer.* Frank H. Willibrand, '30eng, has retired after 23 years with the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio. He was a vice president and production general manager.* William J. Fell, '31eng, Tulsa consulting engineer, has received the “Engineer of the Year” award presented by the Tulsa chapter of the Oklahoma Society of Professional Engineers.* Dr. Blanche Sommers, '31phrm, was recently recognized for her 23 years of service to OU when Alpha Phi Omega, men's service organization, dedicated its spring pledge class to her.* Neale Boyd, '31bus, has been elected financial vice president and secretary and treasurer of Apco Oil Corp. with headquarters in Oklahoma City.* Neal B. Pritchard, '31eng, has been elected senior vice president of Apco Oil Corp. with headquarters in Oklahoma City.* Ernest Cotton, '32eng, Pittsburgh, Pa., has been elected president of the American Petroleum Institute in its refining department of Gulf Oil Corp.* A book by Dr. Dean E. Wooldridge, '33ms, has been published by McGraw-Hill Book Co. The Machinery of Life consists of the accumulated evidence for the essential continuity between non-living and living organisms. Dr. Wooldridge is a director of Thompson Rama Woodridge, Inc. and a research associate at the California Institute of Technology.* Curtis F. Turner, '33phsy, is the new principal at Burroughs Elementary School in Tulsa.* Glenn J. Collins, '33ba, '35med, commander of the Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Tex., was promoted to brigadier general on Nov. 1.* C. H. Noff, '31eng, has been promoted to director of geology for Latin American Gulf Oil Co., Coral Gables, Fla.* V. W. Wilson, '33ms, has been named manager, venture analysis, in Shell Chemical Co.’s Ammonia Division in San Francisco.* John Loken, '31ba, Tishomingo Capital-Credit, has been elected president of the Oklahoma Press Association. Harold Belknap, '26ba, The Norman Transcript, has been elected to the board of directors.* Col. Elizabeth Ray, '32ba, Washington, D.C., director of Women in the Air Force (WAF) since 1961, retired from the service on Oct. 1, 1966.* Ahmad Saidi, '32ba, is listed in the 1966-67 edition of Who’s Who in the East.* Joe W. Maly, '34eng, has been appointed to administer a new regional office of Halliburton Co. in Tulsa.* William C. Bednar, '35eng, has been elected president of the Engineers Club of Dallas, Tex.* F. Allen Calvert, '36ba, '36Law, Tulsa, is the current president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America.* Mayor George H. Shirk, '31ba, Oklahoma City, has received the 1966 “Service to Mankind” award of the Downtown Sertoma Club.* Charles H. Gingles, '35med, commander of the Army’s Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, has been promoted to the two-star rank of major general.* K. D. Greiner, '31Law, Stillwater, has resigned as county attorney of Payne County and has been re-appointed an assistant county attorney.* Lester I. Miles Jr., '36eng, is serving his second year as president of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association. Miles is an independent oil operator in Borger, Texas.* L. Col. L. M. Morris, '36, has been decorated with the Air Force Commendation Medal at Shippard AFB, Tex.* Alex W. Francis Jr., '31eng, president of National Tank Co., Tulsa, has been elected to the board of directors of Combustion Engineering, Inc. New York.* Col. John F. Taylor, '31ba, '37Law, has been named judicial officer for the Army's Fourth Judicial Area in which he will serve as military judge at all General Courts-Martial in Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

A paper copy of this issue is available at call number LH 1 .06S6 in Bizzell Memorial Library.
He is stationed at Ft. Sill.* Russell O. Bennett, '36ba, Wilmette, Ill., a partner in the Chicago law firm of Leibman, Williams, Bennett, Baird and Minow, has been elected to the board of trustees of Kemper Military School and College, Booneville, Mo.* Harold Feldstein, '36eng, has been appointed sales engineer for Laars Engineers, Inc., North Hollywood, Calif.* G. Curtis Mayes, '36eng, Darien, Conn., Middle East joint-interest manager in the corporate exploration and producing department of Socony Mobil Oil Co., has retired after 24 years with the company.* Earl Snead Jr., '37Law, Oklahoma City banker, has been named chairman of a Central Oklahoma Transportation and Parking Authority created by the Oklahoma City Council.* Herman L. Mitchell, '37med, has been named assistant vice president and treasurer of OBU, Shawnee.* Boyce D. Timmons, '35Law, has been named director of registration at OU.

1945-48
Richard C. Jackson, '45eng, Oklahoma City, has been named a director of Cities Service Gas Co.* Lt. Cmdr. Arthur R. Kenworthy, '45eng, has received a "Commendation for Achievement" from the Secretary of the Navy. He received the award as a result of his performance while serving as operations officer at the U.S. Naval Communication Station in Guam.* Grady Harris Jr., '45ba, '49Law, Oklahoma City banker, has been appointed to a one-year term on the new board of regents for Oklahoma College for Liberal Arts, Chickasha.* J. W. (Jack) Hinckley, '45eng, is president of the newly formed Oil Management Corp. of Dallas, Tex.* Dr. Ray M. Hurst, '45ba, is professor of chemistry at North Texas State University, Denton.* William Brandenburg, '46ba, '45msa, has been named executive vice president of Southwest Title and Trust Co., Oklahoma City.* James F. Haake, '46ba, has been elected vice president and general manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.'s Kansas operations.* Mrs. E. Fred Birdwell, '46ba, has been named director of volunteers at Ponca City Hospital.* Carl R. Crites, '46ba, '47bs, '45msa, has joined the economics and business faculty at Fort Hays State College, Hays, Kan.* Edgar H. Nekisch, '46bs, was recently elected president of Lightweight Concrete Co., Inc. of Bethesda, Md.* Joseph L. Artman, '47bs, has been appointed division sales manager of Texaco, Inc., at Tulsa, division headquarters.* Jack W. Blanton, '47eng, has been named president of the American Hard Rubber division of Ameron Corp., Butler, N.J.* James F. Bennett, '47Law, and Rick Rodgers, '63bs, '65Law, have formed the law partnership of Bennett-Rodgers in Duncan. Rodgers is also assistant county attorney for Stephens County.* Herbert P. "Jack" Hewett, '47ba, Oklahoma City attorney, has been named a member of the state securities commission by Gov. Bellmon.* L. B. Cogdell, '47bs, has been named assistant division sales manager at Texas Co.'s Kansas operations.* Mrs. E. Fred Hamman, '48gcol, has been named West Coast development department manager.* Glen W. Ledingham, '48gcol, has been named West Coast District exploration manager for Gulf Oil Corp. in Bakersfield, Calif.* Robert Loebbourrow, '48ba, '49Law, Boise City, has been elected second vice president of the Oklahoma Association of Municipal Attorneys.* Ferrill H. Rogers, '48Law, is chief conservation attorney for the Oklahoma corporation commission.* Dr. John M. Campbell, '48eng, '48msa, has been named a member of the state corporation commission.* Dr. B. J. Rutledge, '48med, Oklahoma City physician, has been elected president of the Oklahoma County Medical Assoc.* Paul N. Campbell Jr., '48bus, Elkhart Ind., has been named store manager for Lerner Shops in Tulsa.

1949-54
Ben Trice, '49bus, has been elected a vice president and comptroller of First National Bank of Fort Worth.* Ned Hockman, '49ed, OU director of motion picture production, has written a manual, "How To Make Good Coaching Movies," which has recently been published by the Eastman Kodak Co.* Robert L. Bailey, '49Law, has been named president of the Oklahoma National Bank in Norman. Harold L. Heiple, '61Law, and Glenn Couch, '57msa, have been elected to the bank's board of directors.* Jerry Emerson, '49eng, is vice president of Capitol Steel Co., Oklahoma City.* John W. Hammett, '49Law, has been promoted to senior attorney and special assistant to the president of Apco Oil Corp. in Oklahoma City.* L. Rex Short, '40Law, has been named assistant counsel of Sinclair Oil and Gas Company in Tulsa. He is also secretary of the company.* John Hubbard, '49m.ed, superintendent of schools at Noble, Okla., has been elected... vice president of the South Central District Oklahoma Education Association. Robert C. Haslett, '49pharm, Vinita, has been honored by the Oklahoma Pharmaceutical Association as its 1966 recipient of the A. H. Robins “Bowl of Hygeia” Award for outstanding community service. Howard Nicks, '49journ, has been named manager of the Daily Oklahoman and Oklahoma City Times. Robert H. Petty, '49ba, '50ma, has accepted a promotion position as associate professor to teach political science at Anne Arundel Community College in Southern Maryland. T. K. Mathews, '49eng, has been elected an assistant vice president of the Republic National Bank of Dallas. James D. Folliart, '49Law, Oklahoma City attorney, has been elected a fellow of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers. Warren B. Hermes, '49ba, has been named manager of Rockwell Manufacturing Co.'s measurement and control division at its Corpus Christi, Tex. office. H. L. McQuiston, '49bus, has been named wage and salary administrator of Lear Jet Corp. in Wichita, Kan. Oscar W. Davison, '49led, is associate professor of secondary education at the University of Redlands, Redlands, Calif. Paul A. Letterer, '49bus, has been named administrative supervisor of Atlantic Refining Co.'s south Louisiana district in Lafayette. W. H. McCollough, '49bus, '51Law, has been elected vice president of Texas Transmission Corp. in Houston, Tex. Clarence D. Deal, '49eng, has been named head of the electronics engineering department of C. H. Guernsey & Co., consulting engineers of Oklahoma City. G. W. Welborn Jr., '50Law, has been named general tax manager for Shell Oil Co. in New York. Paul J. Merchant, '50ed, has been appointed district manager of Apco's Oklahoma City district, motor fuels sales division. Kenneth R. Lowe, '50journ, has been named a registered representative of Waddell & Reed, Inc., national distributor of the United Funds group of mutual funds. Dr. Arthur A. Muka and Mrs. Muka (Betty Oakes, '59bs) have left Cornell University for a one-year sabbatical leave. The Mukas and their five children are living at Los Banos, Laguna, Philippines, where Dr. Muka is working for the Rockefeller foundation as a visiting scientist at the International Rice Research Institute. R. Ted Prater, '50eng, has been appointed mechanical and technical superintendent for Phillips Petroleum Co., Dumas, Texas. Charles E. Ledbetter, '50eng, has been awarded a Shell Merit Fellowship for advance study at Stanford University this summer. Ledbetter is chairman of the mathematics department at Northeast High School in Oklahoma City. G. B. Eckley, '51Law, has joined the Houston Area Land Department staff for Shell Oil Co. John A. “Jack” Taylor, '51m.eng, has been elected president of the Oklahoma City Petroleum Club for 1966. K. D. Soule, '51m.eng, has been named Fort Worth division exploration manager of Pan American Petroleum Co. James R. Harlin, '51eng, senior engineer at the Westinghouse Air Conditioning Division, has recently been granted $10,000 for five patent disclosures. Dale Davidson, '51eng, Halliburton Co. engineer, has been transferred from Oklahoma City to Pauls Valley. Joseph J. Laxbitch, '51eng, has been named general production superintendent in charge of KWB Oil Property Management Company's new division office in Oklahoma City. Louis P. Truscott Jr., '51bus, has been named a vice-president of Liberty National Bank and Trust Co. in Oklahoma City.