H. S. Oderman, '16 sc., (M. S. '26), because of his successful record as president of various utility companies. Mr. Oderman received his bachelor of science degree in 1916. He was a member of Sigma Tau, Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Chi. During the war, he served as captain in the construction division of the army and for several years after the war was identified with the meat packing industry in Kansas City and Chicago. It is in remodelling old ice plants and building new ice plants in the west that Mr. Oderman applied his engineering skill to business. Mr. Oderman is a director or officer in nine ice companies. Most of his time is spent as president of the Detroit (Michigan) City Service Co., a company that manufactures and sells about 350,000 tons of ice a year and sells over 50,000 tons of coal. He is also interested in the Zero Ice & Cold Storage Co., of Norman, which is owned by his father, his brother, a brother-in-law and himself. Mr. Oderman is vice president of the Southwest Utility Ice Co., which has recently been engaged in a national expansion program. Mr. Oderman resides in Detroit, Michigan.
