Oklahomans at home and abroad

NOVEMBER CALENDAR

November 3. Violin department of college of fine arts will present Paul Carpenter in a concert featuring four of the very best violins in America being brought to the university by Herman Walecki of Lyons and Healy, collectors of violins. Mr Walecki will lecture on these valuable instruments.

November 5-6. The University Playhouse of the school of dramatic art will produce Number Seventeen, a mystery comedy by J. Jefferson Farjeon, directed by Professor John Dunn.

November 14. Inter-Church banquet, under auspices of Inter-Church council, at which Doctor Medbury, pastor at Drake university will be the chief speaker.

November 26-29. State Hi-Y Conference at which 143 clubs in the state will be represented. B. V. Edworthy, state secretary, and Dr James Workman, pastor at Hendrix college, Conway, Arkansas, will be guests at the conference also.

ASSOCIATION PROGRESS

Texas Sooner Club

Shelley Tracy, '11 arts-sc., president of Tracy, Locke and Dawson, Dallas advertising firm, was elected president of the Texas Sooner club at O. U's annual Migration day meeting at the Baker hotel October 17. Other officers selected were Carroll S. Moore, ex '10, vice president, Monfort T. "Hap" Johnson, '17 arts-sc., vice president, Charles H. "Chuck" Newell, ex '13, Texarkana, vice president, and Frank N. Watson, '13 law, secretary-treasurer.

Instead of the usual banquet and dance the night before the Texas game, the Texas Sooner club entertained Migration day guests at luncheon in the Crystal ball room of the Baker hotel. About a hundred Sooners of other years were present. Some of those seen greeting classmates and campus friends were Mr and Mrs Frank A. Herald, Mr and Mrs Walter Meier, Mr and Mrs Walter Ferguson, Mr and Mrs Hugh Hoff, Mr and Mrs Charles H. Newell, Mr and Mrs Frank N. Watson, Mr and Mrs Earl Foster, Edmund F. Estergren, Carroll S. Moore, Weaver Holland, Shelley Tracy, and Mr and Mrs Ben G. Owen.

Chuck Newell as toastmaster, Walter Ferguson and Bennie Owen made the speeches and how! True to promise, the program was completed promptly at one o'clock and the parade to fair park then got under way.

Preceding the Migration day luncheon the O. U. band in its gorgeous uniforms completely outstepped and outplayed the Texas band in a parade of downtown Dallas ending in the lobby of the Baker where a real oldtime pep meeting was staged.

Migration day is now a established tradition. Plan now to participate next year—and make your reservations at the Baker early.

Oklahoma City club

Joe Whitten, '27 law, was elected president of the Oklahoma City Sooner club succeeding Lee B. Thompson, at a recent meeting when preliminary plans were laid for the annual Homecoming entertainment. Other officers are Earl Foster, '13 law, vice president and Glenn Faris, '19 arts-sc., secretary-treasurer.

ASSOCIATION BROADCASTS

Almer S. (Mike) Monroney, arts-sc., '24, president of the University of Oklahoma Association, was to speak over WNAD at 8:10 Thursday night, October 29. This is to be the first of a series of twelve programs sponsored by the alumni organization. Other prominent alumni will speak each week on various phases of campus activities of interest to alumni.

OUR CHANGING VARSITY

Enrollment

The total enrollment of the university for the fall semester of the fortieth academic year was announced October 10 as being 5,190, a slight decrease from last year. This figure will probably change with late enrollments adding to the total.

Voluntary

Faculty members and all employees of the university were asked October 6 to contribute to the fund being collected by Governor Murray to print petitions to initiate certain reforms. Claude Weaver, secretary of the governor, wrote the president a letter stating that in the governor's absence but in accord with the desires of the governor, he was asking all departments and institutions under the governor to contribute through heads of departments to the fund. These contributions were to be "voluntary" but an itemized statement of those who contributed and the amounts each contributed should be sent the governor.

Post-medical course

The extension division announces a series of lectures in the post-graduate medical extension service being offered this year, the lectures to be on traumatic and orthopedic surgery with fracture clinics. The lectures were to begin in October and continue through January, and were to be held in various state cities.

Former President Brooks

Dr Stratton D. Brooks, formerly president of the university and later president of the University of Missouri, is now executive director in national DeMolay headquarters in Kansas City. He visited the university October 6. A photograph for The Sooner Magazine was made of him, President Bizzell and first president Dr David Ross Boyd.

Grade change

The administrative council of the university has announced a change in the method of announcing grades. Instead of announcing grades at the expiration... of a six weeks period, as has been done heretofore, grades will now be made known only twice a semester, except that failing students will be reported monthly.

A failing student would be subject to dismissal from the university unless extenuating circumstances decided the case. At the mid-semester report, however, the student failing in as much as forty per cent of his work would be dropped from school automatically.

The new system will enable the faculty to maintain stringent watch on the work of students and at the same time make the report on the basis of work done rather than on a six weeks examination.

The change has met with general approval on the part of the faculty.

Boy scout day

Fourteen hundred and fifty scouts and 300 scout executives attended the third annual Boy Scout day at the university and witnessed the Oklahoma-Rice game on Owen field.

Six added hours

Arts and sciences credit for graduation can now include twelve hours of religion, instead of six, as the result of action of the arts and sciences faculty. The courses are to be taken in the Oklahoma School of Religion.

President's reception

A rare feature of the annual reception given members of the university faculty by President and Mrs Bizzell was the presence this year on October 6 of former Presidents David Ross Boyd and Stratton D. Brooks. The reception was held on the lawn of the president's home.

Doctor Decker custodian

Failure of Carl L. Pawlowski, formerly of the piano department of the university, to accept the custodianship of the Oklahoma Geological Survey resulted in the appointment by the university of Dr C. E. Decker of the department of geology as custodian.

Faculty

John W. Hybarger, '24 arts-sc., M. A. '25, assistant professor in the college of business administration, was confined to St. Anthony's hospital in Oklahoma City for several weeks by illness during the past month.

Dr E. J. Ortman, associate professor of education, is chairman of the faculty forum committee and chairman of the Faculty club.

TExAS CLUB PREXY

Shelley Tracy, '11 arts-sc., president of Tracy, Locke and Dawson, Dallas advertising firm, and president of the Doctor Pepper Company, was elected president of the Sooner club of Texas at the third annual Migration day meeting in Dallas.

GRADUATES IN EMBRYO

Fraternity scholars

Phi Beta Delta fraternity was announced by the interfraternity council as ranking first in scholarship for the second semester of last year. Phi Gamma Delta and Beta Theta Pi ranked second and third respectively. The grade average was computed on the basis of an "A" representing four. The averages as announced are:

1. Phi Beta Delta
   2.038
2. Phi Gamma Delta
   2.065
3. Beta Theta Pi
   2.093
4. Phi Kappa Psi
   2.074
5. Alpha Tau Omega
   2.147
6. Phi Delta Theta
   2.177
7. Delta Tau Delta
   2.058
8. Kappa Sigma

Eighty Niners. Edward Hutchinson of Oklahoma City receiving the most votes for president in this election, with Bill Stephens of Oklahoma City receiving only six votes less.

In the second election Mr Stephens won handily over H. C. Luman of Oklahoma City and Frank Ashby of Norman, his nearest competitor. Mr Hutchinson had withdrawn from the race. He was in no wise to blame for the "stuffed" ballots in the first election, Dean Findlay stated.

Nadine Sherman was elected queen of the class; W. G. Smith, also of Norman, was named vice president; Marion Endicott of Oklahoma City, secretary. John Runyan of Norman was selected as class cheer leader by Ralph Casse, varsity yell leader.

Pledges

Despite the depression Norman fraternities gained their usual number of pledges in fall rushing and had a fair return of old members. The number of pledges and number of actives returning for each of the fraternities this semester follow:

MEN'S FRATERNITIES:

Acacia, 10 pledges, 21 members; Alpha Sigma Phi, 7 pledges, 30 members; Delta Tau Omega, 16 pledges, 25 members; Beta Theta Pi, 13 pledges, 32 members; Delta Chi, 14 pledges, 17 members; Delta Phi Epsilon, 12 pledges, 10 members; Delta Tau Delta, 24 pledges, 30 members; Delta Upsilon, 26 pledges, 21 members; Kappa Alpha, 11 pledges, 44 members; Lambda Chi Alpha, 12 pledges, 30 members; Phi Delta Theta, 8 pledges, 16 members; Phi Delta Theta, 15

Freshman election

The annual excitement known as the freshman election September 25 ended in a nullification of the president's election, necessitating a second election September 29. Ballots in duplicate handwriting in the first election were discovered by J. P. Findlay, dean of men, and Alvan Muldrow, president of the pledges, 40 members; Phi Gamma Delta, 17 pledges, 34 members; Phi Kappa Psi, 11 pledges, 16 members; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 16 pledges, 32 members; Sigma Alpha Mu, 6 pledges, 11 members; Sigma Chi, 14 pledges, 28 members; Sigma Mu Sigma, 8 pledges, 21 members; Sigma Nu, 25 pledges, 30 members.

WOMEN’S FRATERNITIES

Alpha Chi Omega, 10 pledges, 23 members; Alpha Gamma Delta, 5 pledges, 25 members; Alpha Omicron Pi, 5 pledges, 12 members; Alpha Phi, 7 pledges, 16 members; Beta Sigma Omicron, 3 pledges, 10 members; Chi Omega, 20 pledges, 19 members; Delta Delta Delta, 14 pledges, 36 members; Delta Gamma, 22 pledges, 25 members; Gamma Phi Beta, 20 pledges, 21 members; Kappa Alpha Theta, 20 pledges, 21 members; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 32 pledges, 23 members; Phi Mu, 13 pledges, 12 members; Phi Beta Phi, 20 pledges, 23 members; Sigma Delta Tau, 3 pledges, 7 members.

EDITOR-PRESIDENT

Weese, professor of zoology, and president of the Ecological Society of America, has been named editor pro tem of «Ecology», published by the society at Brooklyn, New York. This is another distinction added to the small but nationally known group of workers in zoology at the university.

Derby

The gents of the Derby—Darby if you must English it—have perfected another organization which is going to be known as the Derby club.

The lion members of this noble organization are going to promote the wearing of the bowlers. Their pledges must wear derbies and dinner jackets for a week.

The charter membership numbers twenty-eight. They are going to do their share to making the Danbury haters gayer.

No Follies, Stunt Nite

Neither the Soonerland Follies nor the Stunt Nite will be presented this year, President Bizzell has announced. Strong possibility that both would be financial failures, interference with studies, and necessity of the school of dramatic art using the university stage at night for class work actuated the president in making the decision.

Lower dance costs

The interfraternity council has agreed to a reduction in the number of dances fraternities are to give this year, but the amount of the reduction could not be determined at the meeting September 29.

Ray Bannister, ’32 law, president of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, suggested that women's fraternities might share in the giving of dances by increasing the number of their dances.

Stout fellow

The Sigma Nus have the toughest freshman in Norman, and the Phi Delta Thetas the next, if we are to judge from the results of the annual interfraternity battle royal. T. Ray Phillips, Sigma Nu pledge, knocked out a dozen or so strong fellows; he put the quietus to Bud Browning, Phi Delta Theta white hope. The battle royal was held in the fieldhouse October 7.

Oklahoma Versus Turkey

Oklahoma will debate Roberts college of Istanbul, Turkey, December 7 at Norman. The debate will be held in the university auditorium and will be broadcast over the university radio station WNAD. Sooners can tune in on the debate that night.

James Robinson, ’31 law, of Norman and Hicks Epton, ’31 law, of Durant, will represent Oklahoma in the debate on the question: “Resolved—That the sovereign states should adopt compulsory unemployment insurance as a protection against the vicissitudes of the machine age.”

Oklahoma Rhodes candidates

The university committee of selection has chosen five men to compete in the state nomination for trials for the Rhodes Scholarship, to be held in Oklahoma City December 5.

The candidates are:

Robert E. Brittain, 28 arts-sc., now a graduate student in Princeton university. Plans to do graduate work in English and Spanish at Oxford.

Norman Futuransky, ’33 law, of Oklahoma City. Plans to work in history. G. Scott Hammond, ’32 eng., of Oklahoma City. Plans a law course as part of engineering administration career.

Judson S. Leeman, ’31 arts-sc., of Duncan. Plans a literature course as foundation for missionary work.

Dean Wooldridge, ’31 arts-sc., of Oklahoma City. Plans a physics course.

Brittain, Futuransky and Wooldridge are Phi Beta Kappas, Mr Wooldridge having headed the junior six last year.

German Club

Miss Ella K. Hasemeier of Norman is the new president of the German club, other officers being Maurice Steing of Oklahoma City, vice president and Miss Sibylla Andrews of Chickasha, secretary.

Hawaii game broadcast

WNAD, the university radio broadcasting station, will broadcast the Oklahoma-Hawaii game January 1, according to tentative plans. Wilmer Ragland, ’32 eng., and Bryan Cole, ’32 eng., have applied to the federal radio commission for a license on a twenty meter portable transmitter. If the license is granted, they will accompany the football team and will broadcast an account of the game, play by play.
Alpha Chi Sigma, honorary chemical fraternity, announces that its placque awarded the student of chemical engineering ranking in scholarship has been given Robert A. King, ‘34 eng., of Norman.

Orchesis

The Adagio Dance club has yielded to that of Orchesis this year. Officers for the year are: Miss Mary Nagel of Bartlesville, president; Miss Evelyn Anderson of Norman, vice president; Miss Bernice Booker of Norman, secretary; Miss Mildred Chase of Semi-

Pledge officers

The interfraternity pledge council has elected the following officers: Bob Lockwood of Phi Kappa Psi, president; C. Addington of Delta Upsilon, vice president; Louis Bond of Acacia, secretary; Neal Jones of Lambda Chi Alpha, treasurer.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon officers

Officers of Sigma Gamma Epsilon for this year are: R. V. Hollingsworth of Madill, president; John Duffield of Tulsa, vice president; David Miller of Beeville, Texas, secretary and treasurer; and William Krum of Blue Earth, Minnesota, correspondent.

Phi Delta lounge room

Phi Delta Theta has remodelled its basement, adding a lounge room. A feature of the room will be a mural by Derald Swineford, ’31 art, of Enid, depicting a hunting scene.

History club officers

Officers of the History club this year are: Angus McDonald of Tulsa, president; Kenneth Hogue of Carnegie, vice president; Lynn Downey of Oklahoma City, secretary; Harold Hall of Miami, treasurer; and Leslie Pain of Carnegie, curator.

Hester hall officers

Hester hall has elected Miss Martha Lindal of Bartlesville as vice president. and Miss Mary Bryden of Depew as treasurer to fill vacancies created by failure of the officers elected to those posts last spring to return to school. Miss Virginia Quezenbury of Tulsa is president and Miss Bess Zeldrich of Tulsa is secretary.

There they were

While most of us suspect that it won’t be long before we end in the poor house, three university students discovered that they had rooms in one while preparing themselves in the university for successes in life. What had happened was that an approved rooming house was rented to the county for use as a poor house, since the regular county poor farm house had been destroyed by fire. The students were renting rooms until the rooms were rented without money.

Deep river

The Deep River Plantation singers were to be presented by the men’s council October 31, university approval for the show having been granted.

Personnel safeguard

University approval will be required hereafter before fraternities may engage hostesses, it has been announced. Such contracts must be in writing. “We take this step,” declared J. F. Findlay, dean of men, to safeguard the status and personnel of the hostess staff and not to take initiative away from the fraternities and sororities in selecting their hostesses. We will also not seek to place hostesses with any fraternity.”

Oklahoma 19, Rice 6

Oklahoma opened the football season for 1931 with a win over the highly touted Rice Owls. The game was a well played contest, with the exception of momentary early season lapse a few times. Oklahoma scored in the first quarter on a long forward pass Dunlap to Watson. Elstrom missed the kick for the extra marker. Then by linebuck mixed with a running attack and one long forward pass, Oklahoma bucked over for another marker in the second quarter. However the big thrill of the game came early in the second half. Panze was inserted in place of Captain Warren and on about the third play Rice kicked a long, low boot right down the center of the field. Evidently Rice did not believe the dope that had been put out on Panze, for the ends did not hustle down any too fast. Panze received the ball, tucked it under his arm and started places. Up the field the red and white players each picked a Rice man and proceeded to block him out of the play, and for eighty yards there was hardly a man the Arkansas flash to even touch him, much less tackle him.

The Sooner Magazine

From then on Oklahoma seemed content to play a defensive game and not disclose any new plays. In the last quarter, when a new team came out for Oklahoma and before they got warmed up, Rice succeeded in pushing over one lone touch down and when the final gun cracked the score stood Oklahoma 19, Rice 6.

Harriers

Oklahoma harriers defeated Central State Teachers college October 3 at Norman by winning 32 to 23. Captain Warren “Bus” Moore of Oklahoma led the Sooners to victory, his time for the two miles being 10:15.9.

Homecoming

ALL roads led to Rome. Around November 6 all Oklahoma roads will lead to Norman. By train, auto, bus—and we hope by plane—Sooners should be coming to their annual visit to the university campus.

University of Kansas is the pièce de résistance for the Sooners on Owen field Saturday afternoon November 7. Although it is not Thanksgiving, a Jayhawk feast should whet one’s appetite for Turkey day.

The annual executive board meeting of the University of Oklahoma Association will be held the day of the game. Plans as this issue of the magazine went to press had not been completed, but enough events had been listed for the two days November 6 and 7 to indicate that a “great time will be had by all.”

Here are the “highlights:”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6

All features of the program this day take place in Oklahoma City.

6:30 p.m. Dinner for graduates and former students and Sooner-in-laws (husbands, wives, sweetheart of Sooneers), Colonial room Huckins hotel. Plates $1.00 8:00 Pep meeting Huckins lobby.
8:45 p.m. Dance, Colonial ballroom Huckins hotel. No charge, all Sooners are to be guests of the Oklahoma City Sooner club.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

All features of the program this day take place in Norman.

General headquarters of alumni will be the Oklahoma Union building. Please register here so that you may find friends or they may find you. The registration booth is the center around which the success of homecoming itself depends.

8:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Registration, main lobby, Oklahoma Union building.
10:00 a.m. Annual Homecoming parade.
10:30 a.m. Annual Homecoming meeting of the Association executive board, room 100, Oklahoma Union building.
12 noon. Informal luncheon, Oklahoma Union cafeteria. Line service, no program.
2:00 p.m. Oklahoma versus Kansas, Owen field.
3:00 p.m. Alumni parade between halves.
4:30 p.m. Dance and reception, Oklahoma Union ball room, immediately after the game. Alumni will be guests of the Norman Sooner club.

If you come to Norman by train, remember that taxis are now metered. The rate is twenty-five cents for the first mile, for one to five persons. You should go for this rate from the interurban station to the Union building of the university. If you come by car, and arrive the day of the game, parking place will probably be found in the south oval, west of the armory. Guards will be at hand here to give you more specific directions.

If you want to arrange informal meetings of classmates, you can do so through the Oklahoma Union. Meeting rooms may be reserved in advance. Write Association Secretary Cleckler.

The best time to visit old professors will probably be Friday afternoon.
