Life Members

THREE new Life Memberships were received during the last month, bringing the total on record to 235.

The new ones are a State Supreme Court Justice, a business man-politician, and a school teacher.

The Supreme Court Justice is Denver N. Davidson, '15law, who was an attorney at Ada before he was appointed last summer to fill a vacancy on the court caused by the resignation of Justice Orel Busby, '4law.

Justice Davidson had never before held public office before going on the Supreme Court bench. He had practiced law at Lehigh, Coalgate and Ada. He was state president of the League of Young Democrats in 1922.

B. S. "Chebie" Graham, another of the new Life Members, is well known to many alumni as general manager of the Stadium-Union campaign which made possible the erection of Memorial Stadium and the Union Building on the O.U. campus. Before undertaking this job, he was secretary of the University Y.M.C.A.

In recent years he has been active in politics and his service on the original board of strategy of the Marland administration was rewarded with an automobile tag agency appointment in Oklahoma county. He has also been interested in various business ventures.

The third new Life Member is Miss Thelma Aldriedge, now teaching school at Dill, Oklahoma. Her home was in St. Jo, Texas, but she came to the University of Oklahoma to prepare for teaching and received two degrees, the B.F.A. in 1929 and a second degree in 1936.

Denver N. Davidson, '15law, new Life Member