1920

Dr. Rudolph G. Fitz, '20 med., is chief medical officer of a hospital at Tamingfu, China. He has witnessed the civil war in China. Friends in Norman received word from Mrs. Fitz of the exciting conditions under which they live. On August 24 "the bandits have gained entrance to the city of Tamingfu and are fighting the soldiers from the top of the stone wall which surrounds the city. When I wrote my last letter a bullet came through our house and the other day while I was resting a bomb burst through the roof just over my head. It did not explode or I probably would not be here to finish the letter. In a little while another shell went through my office and out the kitchen wall. The rest of the time we lived in the basement with dirt banked up around two sides and so escaped being struck.
