Lt. James W. Goodwin, ’43ba, Oklahoma City, has won the Bronze Star and the Silver Star for outstanding service with the Field Artillery during the war in Europe. The citation accompanying the Bronze Star, which he earned somewhere between the Roer and the Rhine Rivers on March 1, states in part: “The disdain for danger, bold, aggressive action and skill displayed by Lieutenant Goodwin reflect high credit upon himself and are in accordance with the highest standards of the military service.”

On April 7 during an attack upon a German town, Lieutenant Goodwin, disdaining the danger about him, set out alone to select an observation spot and thereafter directed such effective fire upon the hostile installations that the Infantry was able to continue its advance. This action won for him the Silver Star, the citation praising him “for cool courage, initiative and exemplary action.” Lieutenant Goodwin was attached to the 326th Field Artillery Battalion of the 84th Infantry Division.

Capt. Robert K. Milburn, ’39ha, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Air Medal for heroic achievement in aerial combat. He has participated in 10 combat operations including bombing attacks on objectives throughout Germany. Captain Milburn was with a Bombardment group of the Second Air Division.

Capt. Jack B. Cornett, ’39-40, Oklahoma City, is a member of a squadron that recently won the Distinguished Unit Citation. He also holds the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters. Captain Cornett was in England with a Fighter squadron.

A letter of commendation was recently received by Lt. Dewey E. Dobson, Jr., ’40, Stamford, Texas, from Lt. Col. John P. Breckenridge, commanding officer at the John H. Payne Field, Cairo. Lieutenant Dobson received the commendation for the part he played in the elimination of a 500-ton backlog of vital cargo which was to be moved by air transport to the China-Burma-India theater. In this action over 216 tons of equipment were moved through Payne Field in a period of 24 hours.

Lt. Col. Neil D. Cox, ’27-30, Longview, Texas, has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement. He also holds the Order of the Purple Heart with an Oak Leaf Cluster. Lieutenant Fourt was with a Field Artillery battalion of the 45th Division.

Capt. Lucius C. Tirey, Jr., ’38-41, Quinton, Oklahoma City, has received the Bronze Star from Maj. Gen. E. R. Queseda, commanding general of the Ninth Tactical Air Command, a component of the Ninth Air Force. The citation says of Captain Tirey’s work as tactical officer with a fighter-bomber wing: “His continuous effective efforts as chief controller co-ordinated air attacks closely with those of the ground forces, thereby hastening the rout and destruction of the enemy.”

The posthumous award of the Bronze Star and Silver Star was made on Easter morning to Maj. Basil Shirley, ’28-32, Elk City. The medals were presented to his wife in ceremonies at Fort Sill. Major Shirley was killed in action in Normandy on June 17, 1944. The citation for the Silver Star read: “The gallantry and disregard for personal safety displayed by Major Shirley on June 17, 1944, reflects highest credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States.”

The Bronze Star citation stated, “He distinguished himself by meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy during the period February 23, 1943, to August 20, 1943.”

Major Shirley’s military service included the African and Sicilian campaigns. He has also received the Order of the Purple Heart. Survivors other than his wife and son include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shirley, Lawton, and one brother, Lt. Barker Shirley, ’32law.

The French Croix de Guerre has been awarded to Lt. Col. Hubert S. Judy, Jr., ’40bus, Woodward. He also received recently a second Oak Leaf Cluster to his Distinguished Flying Cross, which he earned in April, 1944, when serving as air commander of a B-24 division of the Eighth Air Force on a bombing mission over Europe. Colonel Judy is on the General Staff Corps of the control council in Europe. He expected to be stationed in Germany this summer.

Maj. Harold C. Kirkpatrick, ’40bs, Norman, has been commended by the commanding officer of the headquarters of the China Wing, India-China division, Air Transport Command, for his record and manner of performance of duty as wing flying safety officer. He attained the “unprecedented, in this wing, low average of .116 accidents per thousand hours of flying during the month ending April 30, 1945.”

The commendation further stated, “By your superior leadership and sincere effort, you have promoted harmony and cooperation between all concerned, without which this splendid result could not have been achieved.”

Cpl. Marion Rowland, ’42-43, Oklahoma City, has recently received the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in the line of duty. He and two companions left their positions and braved enemy fire to carry two wounded men to cover. Private Rowland has earned the Combat Infantryman’s Badge in addition to the Bronze Star. He was with an Armored division in Europe.

Lt. Comdr. John A. Blue, ’43med, Guymon, has been commended in a Naval hospital house organ in an article describing the modern allergy clinic set up by Commander Blue and his corpsmen. It is the first of its kind ever operated in the Hawaiian Islands. They have made their own pollen extracts from dust and local flowers and plants gathered from every part of Oahu Island. The clinic treats hundreds of patients every month.

Col. Boylston B. Bass, ’28bus, Oklahoma City, has recently been awarded the Bronze Star by Gen. Walter Krueger, Sixth Army commander. Colonel Bass won the medal for meritorious achievement in action on Luzon.

“'For meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy,' Cpl. Loren Meador, ’42-43, Erick, has been awarded the Air Medal. He flew nearly 250 missions against vital German-held targets in support of the advance of the Fifth and Eighth Armies. Corporal Meador was gunner on a B-24 with the 15th Air Force.

Lt. Frank M. Cowell, Jr., ’41ba, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Bronze Star by Brig. Gen. Williston Palmer of the Seventh Corps. He won the Star for “meritorious service against the enemy.” Lieutenpersonnel.

Lt. Maurice E. Owen, '36obus, Oklaahoma City, has been awarded the Air Medal. He is a pilot and flight leader with a Bombardment Group in the Philippines. He has been overseas 11 months and has made 75 combat missions. He and his group, known as the "Roarin' 20s," were active in the liberation of the Philippines and took part in the landing on Leyte. They were commended for their direct support of the First Cavalry division.

Lt. Jack C. Humphreys, '43bus, Tecumseh, has received a commendation for more than 70 missions in France and Germany as aerial observer for the 54th Field Artillery battalion. He had previously been awarded the French Croix de Guerre and the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster.

Lt. Col. Walter R. Graalman, '28law, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Bronze Star for "meritorious achievement in the performance of service during the period August 1, 1944, to April 25, 1945," while serving as acting inspector general at Air Force headquarters in the Mediterranean theater of operations. Colonel Graalman entered the service in April, 1942, and went overseas in January, 1944.

Lt. Willis F. Fogg, USNR, '32law, El Reno, has been awarded a letter of commandment by Admiral R. C. Spruance. Lieutenant Fogg received the award for his part in the invasion of Iwo Jima.

"For cool courage and efficient leader-sip" the Bronze Star was awarded recently to Maj. Vestal D. Avery, '32-'40, Wayne, former Field Artillery battalion commander in Germany. The citation for meritorious service stated: "By his calm, cheerful maner and outstanding leadership, Captain Avery maintained the morale and fighting efficiency of his unit throughout a three-day period when his positions were heavily shelled and the enemy penetrated to within a few hundred yards of his guns." Major Avery, recently promoted, is now attached to headquarters of the 272nd battalion as S-3 officer, after 12 months of combat servvice overseas.

Lt. Roy M. Towers, '42bus, Pawnee, has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroic achievement in the Leyte campaign. In an advance over the mountains of Leyte toward Ormac Valley, he was traveling in advance with his scout. When the scout was wounded he pushed forward into the clearing to ascertain the enemy's position. He covered the withdrawal of the wounded soldier and in doing so killed three Japanese soldiers and disabled an enemy gun position. He then went on to deploy his platoon and led the assault which resulted in the death of seven more Japanese, thus enabling the troop to continue its mission.

Lieutenant Towers has returned to duty in the United States.

The Air Medal has been received by Lt. (ig) Robert E. W olford, '40-'42, Norman, for meritorious acts in an aerial flight against the enemy in the vicinity of Kyushu on March 19. Lieutenant Wolford, pilot of a carrier-based fighter plane, engaged and destroyed an enemy single engine bomber,"thereby materially assisting in the protection of his task force units," the citation said. Before blasting the Japanese plane out of the sky, he bombarded barges and strafed planes and installations in the Kanoya area.

Lieutenant Wolford received his commission in the Navy in January, 1944.

Lt. Max G. Pfaender, '40-'41, Oklahoma City, has been awarded both the Air Medal and the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in the Mediterranean theater of operations. Lieutenant Pfaender was serving as a pilot with the 12th Air Force in Italy.

Capt. Harold W. Freeman, '26, Pauls Valley, has received the Bronze Star for meritorious service in connection with military operations in France and Germany.
The award was given for service from January 15 to 25 and from February 5 to May 8. "During these periods he conducted civil affairs with great devotion and judgment with the French people and often with great personal courage, as his detachment was serving under difficult conditions very close to the front lines," the citation read. Captain Freeman entered service in the Military Government branch in December, 1943. He is now military governor of an area made up of 61 towns and villages, and is stationed at Waiblingen, Germany. He is a former speaker of the Oklahoma House of Representatives.

Lt. Col. Bland West, '37law, Norman, has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroic action on December 14. Since that time an Oak Leaf Cluster has been added for meritorious service.

The citation accompanying the award reads in part: "In the vicinity of . . .
France, Major West, as Division G-2, while attempting to contact a task force commander, was subjected to heavy and direct fire from enemy Artillery, mortar, self-propered guns, machine guns and small arms.
With utter disregard for the danger from this concentration of fire he proceeded until he established contact with the task force commander at an observation post which was also under heavy fire. He accomplished his mission, but discovering that the task force was having difficulty in getting proper Artillery preparation for an Infantry attack on a town, he volunteered to undertake the direction of the preparatory Artillery bar-age. Again ignoring the danger to his life he advanced to a vantage point beyond the front lines where he might facilitate the accurate direction of the Artillery. Utilizing his past experience as an Artillery officer, he directed the preparatory Artillery barrage so skillfully that our Infantry was able to attack closely behind it. Major West's skill and personal bravery contributed materially to the success of the attack with a minium of casualties."

Since the time of the action he has received a promotion to lieutenant colonel.

The Bronze Star has been awarded to Maj. Quynon R. Hampton, '37-'44, Norman, for meritorious service in support of combat operations from February, 1944, to May, 1945, in Italy. In a position as assistant to the chief of staff, supply section of headquarters of the Fifth Army, Major Hampton initiated and maintained a set of charts and graphs which reflected the status of ammunition supply at the Army dumps as well as the progress of unloading ships. As a result of his accurate judgment many emergency changes and deliveries were made to forestall the de-development of critical shortages. Major Hampton has been overseas since November, 1942.

Lt. Col. James A. Embry, Jr., '37ba, Chandler, member of the Marine Corps, has been awarded the Bronze Star for "distinguishing himself by meritorious service in connection with operations against the enemy on Guam, Marianas Islands." For three months he served as air defense commander and operations officer of a Marine Air Corps Group, and the award was based on his outstanding performance of these duties.
Recently taking on duties as operations officer, he served as commanding officer of a fighter squadron in the Marshalls. Colonel Embry has returned to the United States and was stationed at Quantico, Virginia.

At a ceremony held at an air field in southern Italy, Staff Sgt. Doyle D. Turner, '42, Cordell, was decorated with the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy." Sergeant Turner was engineer-gunner on a Flying Fortress with the 333rd Bombardment Group.
Capt. John R. Runyan, '31-37, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. More details in connection with his earning the medal were not available. Captain Runyan was with headquarters command in the European theater of operations.

- Lt. Jammie M. Philpott, '38-39, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for "extraordinary achievement" while participating in heavy bombing attacks on targets in Germany and assaults on Nazi strong points in support of military operations against the enemy. Pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress of the 95th Bombardment Group, he was a member of the Fortress group which led the first American bombing attacks on targets in Berlin. Lieutenant Philpott also holds the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster.

- Maj. Richard A. Wilson, '39-41, Oklahoma City, has received a personal letter of commendation from Gen. George C. Kenney, commanding general, Far East Air Forces. The commendation reads: "Your commendable action as a pilot of an A-20 type aircraft on an attack over Nichols Field, Philippines, on February 6, 1945, has been brought to my attention. I wish to express my appreciation of your outstanding performance of this mission. It is through the devotion to duty of men such as yourself that Far East Air Forces have been able to achieve their repeated successes. You have rendered a material contribution to the effective prosecution of the war and to our ultimate victory."

Major Wilson has been overseas 19 months and is credited with 109 combat missions and 319 combat flying hours. This is his second letter of commendation and he holds the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters.

- Lt. James E. Jones, '40-43, Oklahoma City, has recently been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for meritorious services performed while bombing installations in Austria. He was pilot of a Liberator bomber with the 15th Air Force stationed in Italy.

- Capt. Lal D. Threlkeld, '40med, Oklahoma City, has been awarded the Bronze Star with an accompanying citation which reads in part: "His thorough professional knowledge and personal interest in the welfare of every member of his unit have greatly contributed to the efficiency and morale of the squadron and reflect credit upon Captain Threlkeld's character as an officer of the Medical Corps of the Army." Captain Threlkeld was a member of the Medical detachment of the 17th Cavalry Reconnaissance Squadron attached to the 35th Infantry division.

- Lt. Charles H. Neff, '33eng, Kiowa, Kansas, has been awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal "for heroism while serving on board a United States Landing Ship Tank when she struck a mine in the Seine Estuary on November 7, 1944." The citation accompanying the award continues, "The courage, determination and devotion to his crew displayed by Lieutenant Neff on this occasion were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service." The award was made by Adm. Harold R. Stark, commander of U.S. Naval Forces in Europe. Lieutenant Neff is now stationed at the University with the N.R.O.T.C. unit.

- For meritorious service in connection with military operations against the enemy, Capt. John A. Livingstone, '39law, Madill, has been awarded the Bronze Star. The citation accompanying the award reads in part, "Captain Livingstone's zealous performance of duty reflects great credit upon himself and the military service." Overseas since November, 1944, he was attached to the XXI Corps Artillery as assistant counter-battery officer.

- Capt. Elmer Hale, Jr., '41bus, McAlester, has received the Bronze Star for meritorious service in the European theater of operations. Captain Hale participated in the Normandy, northern France, Ardennes, Rhineland, and central European campaigns. He was with the 685th Field Artillery.

- Capt. Richard M. McCool, Jr., '41ba, Norman, has been awarded the Order of the Purple Heart for injuries received in action with the Navy in the Pacific. Captain of an LCS, Lieutenant McCool received burns, bruises and shrapnel wounds. He was a patient in a base hospital in the Pacific last month. Lieutenant McCool graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, last year.

- Sgt. John H. Gamble, '41-'42, Norman, is a member of an Air Squadron recently awarded the Meritorious Service Unit plaque for its superior performance in maintaining the aircraft of a Ninth Air Force P-51 Mustang group. In recognition of his personal efforts in bringing about this award, Sergeant Gamble now wears a gold wreath on the right sleeve of his uniform.

- Lt. Frank Bishop, Jr., '40bus, Norman, has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against the enemy. Lieutenant Bishop won this award for services rendered when he re-organized his company during its attack on the town of Stettenich, Germany, on February 24. Lieutenant Bishop was with the 175th Infantry division.

- Sgt. James W. Gray, Jr., '39, Norman, was awarded the Air Medal on completion of 150 hours of operational flight in transport aircraft. The flights were made over the dangerous and difficult India-China air routes, where enemy interception and attack was probable and expected. Sergeant Gray is an aerial engineer with the India-China division of the Air Transport Command.

- An Oak Leaf Cluster has been added to the Bronze Star held by Lt. Col. Maurice E. Stuart, '38law, Oklahoma City. It was awarded for services rendered during the Ardennes offensive. He recently received the promotion to lieutenant colonel and was made adjutant general of the 82nd Airborne Division. Colonel Stuart has been in the European theater for the past 27 months.

- Tech. Sgt. A. B. Balch, Jr., '38-'41, Norman, has been awarded the Bronze Star. The citation read in part, "Sergeant Balch, as operations sergeant of the Engineer section, has displayed exceptional ability in correlating and reporting Engineer operations of the units of the Eighth Corps. His initiative and unswerving loyalty have been in keeping with the highest traditions of the armed forces and reflect great credit upon himself." Sergeant Balch was with the headquarters of the Eighth Corps.

- Lt. William L. Hammond, '38ba, Nashville, Tennessee, has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement during numerous operational missions over Europe.

- Cant. Drexel B. Dunn, '40bus, Rocky, has been awarded the Air Medal for distinguishing himself in aerial flight against the enemy in Germany, including front-line reconnaissance and adjustment of Artillery fire on enemy installations. Captain Dunn was attached to the Ninth Air Army.

- The second Oak Leaf Cluster has been added to the Air Medal held by Lt. Murray V. Jett, '41-'43, Frederick. Lieutenant Jett was co-pilot of a B-17 which was instrumental in the successful crippling of industrial Germany by the Eighth Air Force's daylight bombing offensive.
Larecy served throughout the European controller for operations of the Eighth Air Force, made the presentation to him, honoring him for "exceptional services rendered in the course of operations for the liberation of France." Colonel Hall, senior controller for operations of the Eighth Air Force second air division, has been overseas since September, 1942. He has flown in the Middle East, North Africa and the European theater of operations.

Colonel E. H. Larcey, '26, Seminole, has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service as executive officer of the Seventh Army supply section. Also holder of the Legion of Merit award, Colonel Larcey served throughout the European campaign with the Seventh Army, making the landing on the southern coast of France. Before entering the service he was a state C.C.C. official.

Sergeant James Spradlin, '43-'41, Oklahoma, has been awarded the French Croix de Guerre with palm. Lt.Gen. William J. Hall, '37-'40, Oklahoma, was killed in action on Okinawa on April 23. No details of his death were available. A Field Artillery officer, he went overseas late last year. Before entering the service Captain Miller was associated with the Williams and Miller Gin Company and the Elk City Cotton Oil Company in Elk City. He was a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity and Rotary International. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Marie Miller, and two sons, Sam D., Jr., and Gus.

Tharon A. Park, pharmacist's mate first class, '36pharm, Okmulgee, has been killed in action. No details of his death were available. Mr. Park was home on leave in March after spending 18 months aboard a seaplane tender in the Pacific, during which time he took part in the battles for Saipan and Tarawa. He was employed as a pharmacist in Oklahoma City and at Lawton prior to enlisting in the Navy November 16, 1942. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Tharon A.
