I subscribe to the principle that a free flow of appropriately pertinent information between nations is vital to preserve peace and that international understanding is much more likely to become a reality if predicated upon this basis."

It is hoped that this movement will continue effectively and that the aperture of the press may continue to be a bulwark of democracy in America as well as a guiding light to the peoples of the world."

Here is WHAT the U.P. released said some weeks ago about this Sooner Son—OU.

"Oklahoma City, Sept. 30—(U .P.)—Gov. Robert S. Kerr today informed his office that he had cancelled a talk in Detroit Saturday night to fly to Washington and announce immediately in political circles that he might be offered the cabinet post vacated by Henry Wallace. Kerr's office staff said the Detroit speech had been post-poned indefinitely. The governor, on route today from LaFayette, Indiana, to Logansport, Indiana, for a speech in the latter city tonight, did not explain reasons for the postponement. The governor, who was prominently mentioned last spring as a possible successor to Harold L. Ickes when Ickes resigned as Secretary of Interior, keynoted for the possibility of being offered the post."
