and Roy Davis Leeper, stated that "this tribute to their memory is made in loving remembrance by their three children."

Leeper died in 1892, while Mrs. Leeper died in 1899, and both are buried in the Norman cemetery.

The Leepers established a home shortly after their marriage in Oklahoma Territory. The post office of Leeper, L. T., was founded under the supervision of Mr. Leeper, who continued as postmaster until his death. This was an inland post office with a population brought by horseback twice a week from Purcell.

37 Draw All 'A's'

Thirty-seven University students came through the fall semester, which ended in January, with straight A grade averages.

They are Margaret Baird, Wanda Beasley, Charles Branch, Don Deardorff, John Dardis, Claire Entenminger, Mark Everett, Beth Eggle, Bill Hennessey, Yelda McNish, Dan McKee, Mark Mullen, Ernest Mullen, Jr., and Luke Mullen.

A new book by Henry D. Rinsland, '20, Ph.D., published in New York City. As one of the editors selected by a national committee, Mr. Rinsland will contribute an article on "Public Relations for Churches."

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Dr. M. A. B. Stetson to an assistant professor of music education at the University of Oklahoma, who is to be married on March 25.

Anyone curious to know what is wrong with U.S. industry as a whole, should read in a recent issue of Malleus Maleficarum, an article on "The Industry of Time."