A Happy Ending

Rush week—1950—brought a period of annual activity to the University when some 900 prospective sorority and fraternity pledges were on the campus for the September 3-8 festivities.

For the sorority rushees, activities began Sunday at 4 p.m. with registration at the women's quadrangle. Sunday evening and Monday were spent in attending open house of each of the 12 sororities. The following three days were filled with rush parties, climaxed Friday by bid house and dinner parties given by the sororities for their new pledges.

Fraternity rushers registered in the Union lobby Monday. Preferential breakfasts and parties followed Tuesday morning. Activities ended for the new pledges Friday evening at bid house in the University amphitheater.

Numerically, the rushes hit a new high and low this year. Approximately 400 co-eds went through rush week activities—a marked increase over past years—with a total of 309 pledging sororities.

Fraternity rush registration dwindled to 425—the lowest since World War II—with 412 men being pledged to the 23 University fraternities.

The 1950 pledges found they weren't the only additions to the campus—two sorority houses also made a debut at autumn rush. The Gamma Phi Beta sorority made their initial bid for pledges in a two-story ranch style house of sandstone and redwood flanked on the southwest by a large patio. Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity is occupying their former home.

Next door to Gamma Phi's is the new Alpha Chi Omega sorority house of brick and stone which brings a touch of modernistic architecture to the campus.

The 1950 pledges include:

A second generation Sooners, Hugh plans to get a degree in physics and then "do research work in nuclear physics with emphasis on applying theoretical knowledge to peacetime use of atomic energy." His father, Hugh Roff, Sr., 28Law, received a degree from the University, and Mrs. Roff, the former Louise Wewerka, 24ba, attended the law school after receiving her bachelor's degree.
Richard Gordon Matzene, prominent Ponca City photographer and painter, died at his home there in the late summer following a heart attack. He was 69.

Matzene had been a resident of Ponca City for the last 23 years, having come to Oklahoma from Simla, Colorado.

In 1936, he and Lew Wentz, late Ponca City Daily Leader, started the first Ponca City newspaper. Matzene was a self-taught artist and photographer who worked for the Works Progress Administration during the 1930s, producing a book manuscript. In 1950, he returned to Pennsylvania State College, where he had been a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, to complete work on a textbook manuscript.

In 1959, he was a member of the staff of the Ponca City Daily Leader.
