Decorations were announced last month for ten more University alumni serving in battle areas in the Pacific and Africa and in the Panama Canal Zone. One award was made posthumously.

- Capt. Lloyd L. Reynolds, '37-'38, Oklahoma City and Tulsa, was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in ceremonies held at Buckingham Field, Port Myers, Florida, for his part in sinking an enemy submarine off Devil's Island, French Guiana, last October. Captain Reynolds was co-pilot and navigator of the plane which spotted the U-boat from 5,000 feet. The sinking was confirmed ten days later when a lone survivor was picked up. Captain Reynolds was stationed at Fort Myers following his return from foreign duty.

- Lt. David Lutton, '40-'41, Bartlesville, was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for meritorious action and bravery under fire in the North Pacific. Lieutenant Lutton was commissioned a pilot in the Army Air Force in February, 1942, at Stockton Field, California. Former law student in the University, he was a letterman in football, basketball and baseball. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

- Lt. Walter Carl Weatherly, '38-'42, Norman, who was killed February 24 after his plane struck anti-aircraft nets in the Panama Canal Zone, received the Air Medal posthumously on March 24. This award was made at Air Force headquarters in Panama. The accompanying citation read in part, "As pilot of a disabled airplane, Lieutenant Weatherly displayed excellent piloting ability and clear thinking. He landed the disabled airplane in such a manner as to save the lives of his crew members, but died as a result of the crash landing." Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Emma Weatherly, of Duncan.

- Lt. Edward L. Leonard, '40-'41, Chickasha, and Sg.t Bill M. Stolzer, '40-'41, Oklahoma City, were awarded Air Medals in April for participation in five raids against the enemy in North Africa. Lieutenant Leonard, who was associated with a bakery in Chickasha before entering the service, was a member of the glee club, the cappella choir and the men's quartet while attending the University. Sergeant Stolzer was a Phi Delta Theta fraternity pledge.

- Lt. Don L. Sutliff, '40, Blackwell, has been decorated with the Air Medal for his participation in more than 25 missions against the Japanese in the Southwestern Pacific. Twice Lieutenant Sutliff has been reported missing in action and both times he has eventually returned to his base. He is a member of a fighter squadron.

- Lt. Chester C. Kennedy, '35, Konawa, has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement against the enemy in the Pacific. Announcement of the award came from General MacArthur's headquarters in Australia.

- Capt. Paul Irving Williams, '34-'39, Norman, much-decorated Flying Fortress pilot, has been awarded the Air Medal for more than 100 hours of operational flying. Pilot on more than 30 combat missions against the enemy in the Southwest Pacific, his recent exploits include an attack on a Japanese cruiser in Rabaul Harbor.

- In night ceremonies held under flood lights in Papua in March, Lt. Dugan Woodring, '36-'58, Noble, received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal for meritorious action. The Flying Cross is awarded for 50 missions in enemy territory, the Air Medal for 25. Lieutenant Woodring, member of a fighter group, already held the Silver Star for a mission over Buna last August.

- Lt. Donald R. Greenhaw, '37-'41, Senticel, was decorated with the Purple Heart for wounds received in the North African fighting. He was stationed with the Field Artillery at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, before going overseas. While attending the University, he was connected with the Oklahoma Daily.

- Capt. James E. Miles, Jr., '36-'39, Sapulpa, was killed in action on the North African front February 22. He went overseas in October, 1942, after serving at Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma, and on west coast patrol duty. Captain Miles received Air Force training at the Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa and Randolph and Kelly Fields in Texas. While a student in the University, he was a varsity wrestler, football player and a member of Ruf Neks. Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Miles of Sapulpa, and his wife who lives at Modesta, California.

- Lt. William W. Smith, Jr., '39-'41, Tulsa, was killed last December while serving as pilot of a four-motored bomber which crashed in the Pacific. He was a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity and a former student in the College of Arts and Sciences. Lieutenant Smith was stationed at March Field, California, before going on overseas duty. Survivors include his wife, the former Barbara Jeanne Baker, '42ba, of Springfield, Missouri, a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

- Lt. James R. Brooks, Jr., '35-'38, Muskogee, was killed early in March when his plane crashed near Peterson Field, Colorado Springs, Colorado. He was a former student in the College of Arts and Sciences and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Adele Brooks, of Colorado Springs, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brooks, of Muskogee.

- Lt. Wayne W. Christian, '39ba, Oklahoma City, Marine Corps pilot previously reported missing in action, was killed the night of January 26 in a plane collision near his Guadalcanal air base while returning from a combat mission. Pilots of both planes were killed in the accident. Lieutenant Christian was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Christian of Oklahoma City.

- Capt. John J. Watt, Jr., '38eng, Oklahoma City, was killed accidentally in the Pacific war area, probably Australia, on March 4 as he was crossing railroad tracks hurrying to catch a train. Previously he was reported missing in the Philippines but later reached Australia safely. Survivors include his mother, Mrs. John J. Watt, Oklahoma City, his wife and a son, John J. Watt III.

- Capt. James A. Johnston, '39-'40, Chickasha, was listed as killed in action on a casualty list released by the War Department March 23 which did not specify the area he was in. Captain Johnston was a former junior student in the University majoring in economics and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Marshall B. Johnston of Chickasha.

- Lt. Ernest B. (Jack) Paxton, '39-'42, Del Rio, Texas, was killed March 31 in an airplane crash near Kerrville, Texas. He was stationed at the Army Air Force Navigation School at Hondo, Texas. Former engineering student in the University, he was commissioned at Ellington Field, Texas, last September after entering service early last year. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Samuel J. Storms, the former Mabel Paxton, ’38-41, of Sea Girt, New Jersey.

► Ensign Leslie W. Dowell, ’40-42, Tulsa, was killed in a training plane crash east of Moore April 10 while on a routine training flight from the Norman Naval Air Station. Former engineering student in the University, he received his commission as a Naval aviator last December and came to the Norman base from Corpus Christi, Texas. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Anna Dowell, of Norman, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern B. Dowell of Tulsa.

► Lt. James L. Cockrell, Jr., ’40-41, Tulsa, was reported missing in action in North Africa in March. He was thought to have participated in the fighting at Kasserine Pass with an Armored division. Former geologist at Oak Park, Illinois, Lieutenant Cockrell was stationed in Ireland and England before transfer to Africa. Mrs. Cockrell and their daughter live in Chicago. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cockrell of Tulsa.

► Lt. Nurney Wilson, ’39-42, Washington, Oklahoma, was reported missing in action in Alaska where he was serving as navigator of a four-motored bomber. He was transferred to that area last summer. Lieutenant Wilson’s father is Rev. J. W. Wilson of Washington. His wife lives in Norman.

► Lt. James T. Godfrey, Jr., 39-42, Oma, Oklahoma, was reported missing in action in North Africa since February 17, exactly one year to the day after he sailed for Ireland on foreign duty. He was previously stationed at Fort Meade, Maryland, and Fort Bragg, North Carolina. A member of Phi Chi fraternity, he did his internship at Sibley Memorial Hospital in Washington, D. C., where his wife still lives. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. James T. Godfrey of McAlester.

► Lt. Glen L. Dark, Jr., ’41, Oklahoma City, of the Army Air Forces, was reported missing in Africa since February 15. Former engineering student in the University, he received his commission as a navigator in June, 1942, at Mather Field, California.

► Capt. Clarence A. Martin, Jr., ’39-40, Waurika, received shrapnel wounds in action in the North African fighting last month. He reached his base safely after a crash landing in the desert. He was a former student in the College of Arts and Sciences.

► Maj. Cecil McFarland, ’25, Norman, was reported a prisoner of the Japanese, probably in the Philippine Islands, after a short-wave broadcast from Tokyo March 19 carried a message purporting to be from him to his family in Norman. Short-wave listeners throughout the United States who heard the program wrote the McFarland family about having heard the Major’s message. Stationed in the Philippines at the outbreak of the war, Major McFarland is believed to have escaped to Australia and later captured when he returned to the islands on a mission.

► Maj. George B. Hohl, ’24, Sand Springs, reported missing since the fall of Bataan, was announced as a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippines. Indirect word of him reached his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hohl of Sand Springs, early this year when Col. Carlos P. Romulo, former aide to General MacArthur, was in Tulsa. He told of seeing their son shortly before the Philippines fell and that he was well at that time. Major Hohl was an accountant with the Kerr Glass Company at Sand Springs before he entered the service in September, 1941.

► Lt. S. B. (Andy) Anderson, Jr., ’41, Oklahoma City, formerly missing in action with the Army Air Forces over Europe, was reported a prisoner in the Oflag Prison Camp in Germany. Permitted to send out three letters a month, he wrote relatives that he was well and that the Red Cross supplied food to the prisoners. His father, Capt. S. B. Anderson, on duty with the Marine Corps at Corpus Christi, Texas, plans to try to send him correspondence courses so he can continue his college work.

► Lt. Phil McCartney, ’41, Ponca City, was mentioned in dispatches from the Pacific battlefront as one of the pilots in a fighter group which bombed Japanese fuel dumps in New Britain recently.

► Dead tired and 30 pounds lighter, Capt. Jesse Carney, ’36-38, Norman, returned to his fighter squadron in China in March following three weeks spent in enemy territory after his plane was shot down on February 28. He was 25 miles behind enemy lines in the western part of Yunnan Province when his motor was shot away, forcing him to land in a rice paddy. He walked approximately 300 miles through the mountains, dodging Japanese searching parties, snatching bits of rest in the homes of friendly Chinese, living on scraps of food, before he reached his own base.

► Miles K. Wilson, ’33, Chandler, machinist’s mate second class, was a patient in the Navy Hospital in Oakland, California, following his participation in the Battle of Midway.

► Lt. Robert E. Howard, Jr., ’39-42, Oklahoma City, took part in a lightning raid on enemy positions in Southern Tunisia in which a mountain pass was taken and 84 Italian prisoners were captured. The action took place in the mountainous region near Gafsa, a town held by the Italians. The commanding officer of the Italian detachment was killed and not a single American was lost. Lieutenant Howard was employed with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Oklahoma City before entering service.

► Maj. Gen. Raymond O. Barton, ’07, formerly of Ada, commanding general of a motorized division, has been transferred to Fort Dix, New Jersey. Maj. Gen. Walter Robertson, '07, the only other alumnus known to hold the rank of general, is commanding officer at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin.

Maj. John D. Bridges, '34-'37, Oklahoma City, veteran of Pacific warfare and holder of the Silver Star for gallantry in an aerial attack on Rabaul last August, was home on rest leave last month.

Abroad

Seeing a tiger while coming back to the post from town was casually reported in a recent V-mail letter by Mr. Price, '27law, former San Antonio attorney now with the Field Artillery in India. Reporting on Indian animal life, he writes, "No snakes at this camp but excellent hunting as it's tiger country. Saw a tiger last week as I was returning to camp from town. Jackals run through the camp at night like so many dogs."

Lt. Jack M. Collier, '40fa, Norman, was a ferry pilot attached to the India-China Ferry Command. Sgt. Lewis L. Evins, '40gs, Oklahoma City, was on duty somewhere in the Middle East.
