Key to Abbreviations

Arts and science degrees, either Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science, '00s fine arts, '00a: engineering, '00ing: business administration, '00bus: pharmacy, '00pharm: home economics, '00hec: education, '00ed: master of arts, '00ma: master of science, '00ms: doctor of philosophy, '00phd: doctor of education, '00ed: library science, '00lib: sc: doctor of science in medicine, '00med.

Sooner roll call

YEAR BY YEAR

1906
E. E. Hudson, '06, is now state railway engineer for the Oklahoma Corporation Commission. His home is in Norman.

1911
Dr. F. A. Balaycot, '11as, '18ma, professor of education in the University, was chairman of a sectional meeting on "The Development of New Secondary Schools" at a regional conference of the Progressive Education association held in Oklahoma City recently.

1912
Mrs. V. H. Haun, mother of Ray Haun, '12as, Detroit, Mich., and Harry L. Haun, '20as, Norman, died in early December at Pond Creek. Mrs. Haun, a pioneer Oklahoman, also is survived by her husband and another son, Paul B. Haun, of Blackwell.

Charles Smith, '2as, has been appointed editor of the Trojan Writer, a monthly magazine published in New York City. The publication, according to announcement, will be atheistic.

1914
Claude Reeds, 'Has, added another laurel to his football coaching record when his Central State Teachers college team won the 1936 championship of the Oklahoma Collegiate conference. In defeating the East Central Teachers college team from Ada on Thanksgiving day, the Bronchos withdrew their 1936 season without a defeat or a tie in their conference schedule. Reeds was a star fullback on the Sooner team in 1910-14.

Dr. Carl T. Stein, '14med, won the championship in the annual golf tournament of the Norman Country club.

1916
Dave Logan, '16as, has been appointed district oil conservation officer for the Corporation Commission for Oklahoma and several nearby counties. Logan's term as state senator expired November 18. He was not a candidate for re-election.

William J. Lowry, '16as, recently became superintendents of public schools at Springfield, Illinois.

1919
Della Brustetter, '19as, assistant professor of French, gave an illustrated lecture on Mexico at a recent dinner meeting of the Canadian County Medical association in El Reno.

William Peiffer, '19aw, now of Amarillo, Texas, has been made executor of a $60,000 estate. The estate is that of Julius Garlicker, an uncle of the University graduate, who was a merchant and philanthropist in Washington, D. C. He died November 5. The bulk of the estate was left to charity, but $100,000 was given to Mrs. William Peiffer, mother of the executor, who lives in Oklahoma City.

Richard H. Floyd, '19as, '28law, was in charge of arrangements for an elaborate program December 2 at which Norman's new National Guard armory was formally dedicated. Mr. Floyd, who is a Norman attorney and former secretary of the University of Oklahoma association, is commander of Company C, 120th Engineers, of the National Guard, and is chairman of the Norman armory board.

Dewey 'Snooter' Luster should be placed near the top. The average coach wants the sports writers to play up the opposition and to belittle his players, his team and his prospects. Then at the end of the season when team wins he appears in the role of a master mind, or if not so successful, he has a perfect alibi. Luster, who has broad shoulders and is not afraid to talk about himself, is the type who follows different tactics. He wastes no time trying to win football games with newspaper propaganda, but works hard to teach his players to perform their assignments just a little better than the best opposition. The Norman record of 19 consecutive games won in Oklahoma without a loss is the best testimony of his success. Even then he declines to receive the applause of the football fans and shoves forward his assistants and the players. When a man displays such fine traits it is not so difficult to figure out just why his little Tiger players were willing to go out and hurl themselves into the teeth of much larger opponents and keep doing it until a victory was in the well-known burlap bag.

Denzel Carr, '22ex, and his wife, Elizabeth Ball Carr, '24as, are both studying this year at Harvard University. Norman's Carr was given a fellowship from 1936-37 in linguistics. He was appointed Italian consul for the Hawaiian Islands last May.

1923
J. A. Rinehart, '22law, of El Reno, was selected to act as attorney for the general investigating committee of the state Senate in the special session.

Clarence Mills, '23aw, district judge at Oklahoma City, was one of the speakers at the annual smoker given by junior law students of the University.

1924
Harrington Wimberly, '24as, Altus newspaper publisher, has been re-elected president of the Oklahoma State Society for Crippled Children. A resolution calling for an addition to the hospital was adopted at the meeting of the association held in early December.

Verlin G. Thompson, '24as, former head of the McAlester district of the Works Progress administration, has taken over management of the district office at Oklahoma City. Since graduating from the University in engineering geology, Thompson has worked on large engineering projects in Florida, serving as valuation engineer for the Oklahoma tax commission and as city manager of McAlester.

1925
Lucile Huntington, '25as, '35lib.sc, is now on the staff of the Library Council of the University of Illinois, Urbana, and is working on a master's degree in library science.

Mattey Wilson Williams, '25as, of Altus, was author of a full page feature story on "No More Little Red School Houses," in the November 29 edition of the Daily Oklahoman. The article described how Jackson county is the first county in the state to reach 100 per cent consolidation of rural schools, thus eliminating all one-room schools.

Grace Browning, '25as, assistant state director of public welfare, spoke on "Administration of Public Welfare in Oklahoma" at a recent meeting of the Social Work club at the University.

Tessie Mobley, '25ex, Indian opera singer known as Lushanya Mobley, is scheduled to give a concert January 13 in the auditorium of the Mauerskes' Enid Piano. Miss Mobley, who has studied in Berlin and Rome, is paying a short visit to Oklahoma before sailing for Italy to begin an opera schedule that will last a year.

Samuel A. McReynolds, '25fa, Oklahoma City, is now working entirely at musical composition.
He recently completed "Concerto in D Minor," for cello and symphony.

1926

Mario B. Rodriguez, '26as, is teaching English at the University of Puerto Rico.

1927

Junia Lewis, '27as, has been named public welfare director for Osage county.

Buff B. Burris, '27as, Clinton, has consummated purchase of the Clinton Daily News and Custer County Chronicle from Eugene Pulliam. Mr. Burris, who is a member of the executive board of the University of Oklahoma association, has been editor and publisher of the News and Chronicle for seven years.

Bat Shunatona, '27aw, now an attorney at Wewoka, has dedicated in 125 athletic events in the last five years, according to a writen published recently in the Oklahoma News, Oklahoma City. Shunatona, who played quarterback for the Sooners while in school, says that it is not enough for an official to understand the rules and enforce them honestly—he must be physically able to follow the game.

"If I play the game because I like it," he said. "If a coach wants to get mean and give head to his own players, I'll give him as much as he wants. We have a right to boo. But most of the time we don't even hear them. We are too busy with the game."

1928

A collection of paintings by Olinka Hrdy, '28fa, has been placed on exhibition at the PWA-Tulsa Art association gallery at the Central Library, Tulsa. Miss Hrdy has done mural paintings in Norman, Oklahoma City and Los Angeles, and has designed textiles and furniture in New York. Her first book illustrations, 200 diagrams illustrating "Japanese Flower Arrangements for the Modern House," by Margaret Preninger, are to be published soon.

1929

Joe Kennedy, '29aw, Muskogee, is a member of a citizens' committee appointed by the Oklahoma Public Welfare commission to assist in the social security program and other phases of state welfare work.

1931

Calvin T. Smith, '31ex, superintendent of Seminole county schools, has been elected president of the east central district of the Oklahoma Education association.

Henry Meyer, '31ex, Norman funeral home director, has been elected president of the Norman Kiwanis club and will be installed in the office in January.

Ben Hucy, '31aw, Cleveland county representative, introduced a bill for a state police system organized along military lines in the special session of the legislature in December. The bill called for a force of approximately one hundred men directed by a commissioned officer appointed by the governor. The plan was designed to bring about a non-political state police system, Mr. Hucy said.

1932

Anna Lee Neale,'32as, has been named director of the Norman Nursery school.

Eugene Kendall, '32as, '34M.A., Norman insurance man, has received word that he ranked seventh among all the 9,171 agency men of the New York Life Insurance company in number of policies written during the first six months of 1936. The ranking included all agents of the company in the United States and Canada.

Ruth Buckley, '32he, has a position with the Public service company at Tulsa as a home economics demonstrator.

As chairman of the news photography division of the American Association of Teachers of Journalism, A. Clarence Smith, '32ma, was in charge of an extensive program scheduled at the annual convention of the association December 31 in St. Louis.

Bus Mills, '32ex, former Sooner football and basketball star, is scheduled to start in the outfield for the Boston Red Sox baseball club in the 1937 season, according to announcements by Tom Yawkey. Yawkey was quoted as saying: "I expect Buster Mills, who will start in the outfield. Yes, I know he's been up before, but they tell me he has learned to hit curve ball pitching, and that's only weakness he had. When he hits a ball, Mills hits it big."

Mrs. Zorale Kilkoug, '32as, has been appointed social worker for Caddo county, and Mrs. Reita Stratton, '32as, has been appointed to a similar position in Canadian county.

1933

Harvey McGaieh, '33as, has been appointed professor of history on the faculty of the Cameron Junior college, Lawton.

Hugh Comfort, '33as, '35M.A., has been appointed instructor in English at Central State Teachers college, Edmond.

Rebecca Davis, '33as, Norman, has been named modern language teacher in the School of individual courses at Oklahoma City.

Daisybelle Dunn,'33lib-sc, is new assistant librarian and catalogues at Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha.

A position as city editor of the Brattle Record has been taken by Robert Aldo Park,'33as.

Glenn Hall,'33as, is now assistant at the Lubbock District CCC headquarters. Mrs. Hall is the former Mary Biggeri, Wallblum, member of the University of Texas chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Resigning her position as old age pension director for Cleveland county, Mrs. Wildila Morris,'33piano, has accepted a similar position in Oklahoma county.

Edgar Baster, '33eng, and George L. King, '33eng, are both employed with the Oklahoma Gas and Electric company, at Ardmore, Oklahoma.

Paul Dooley,'33as, and his wife who bought "Precious Land," a three-act play by Bob Feller, has resigned as assistant United States district attorney for the Western district of Oklahoma by Dr. Charles M. Pearce, state health commissioner.

After teaching the last two years at Hollis, Georgia Ledbetter,'34fa, is teaching Spanish and dramatic art in Alva high school.

Ray Anthony,'34aw, recently was elected president of the Oklahoma City alumni association of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Rising rapidly in the radio profession, Clifton Daniel,'34aw, has been appointed chief announcer for radio station WGBE in Pittsburg, which is owned by the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegram. Daniel has been in Pittsburg since August, 1935.

John Richard Carpenter,'34aw, now a Rhodes scholar at Oxford university, made a bicycle tour of Germany last summer. He returned to his work at Oxford and plans to complete work on a Ph.D. degree before returning to America.

Mrs. Rosella Donnell Scott,'34aw, '36M.A., has resigned as assistant in the University mathematics department to accept a position as mathematics teacher at Blanche college, Muskogee.

Alma Shaw,'34aw, was recently appointed to supervise a new southwestern research bureau for America, working for the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, having completed two years of a three-year contract.

Elmer C. Sprague,'33as, is superintendent of Kiowa public schools.

Frank Culwell,'33as, who has been on the staff of the Seminole Producer for the last year and a half, has moved to Norman and joined the editorial staff of The Norman Transcript, has been appointed city editor to fill a vacancy left by resignation of Roscoe Cate,'26aw, who is now at the University as editor of the Sooner Magazine and assistant in the press relations department.

"Precious Land," a three-act play by Bob Whitehand,'33aw, which was produced at the University of Oklahoma originally, has been recommended by the National Play bureau of the Federal Theater project to be a featured play in the project. Copies of the play were sent to all theater project directors in the United States.

Archie Soucek,'33aw, won a regular berth in the line of the 1936 Navy football team and radio fans who listened to the broadcast of the Army-Navy game that climaxned the season heard his name mentioned several times.

Helen Barbour,'33as, has resigned as home economics teacher in Norman High school to take a position as dietitian in the Physicians and Surgeons hospital at San Antonio, Texas.

Patricia Clark,'33as, has been appointed public welfare director for Jackson county.
the Works Progress administration drama project. Working under the general direction of John Dunn, project director, Miss Shaw was instructed to gather drama material from Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico as well as Oklahoma. It was announced the bureau also would serve as a clearing house and dramatic agency for original plays by southwester authors. The southwestern drama research bureau was the fourth to be established in the country and the second south of Chicago.

Chester H. Lindcheid, '34lib-sci, has been employed in the library at South Dakota State college, Brookings, S.D.

J. Richard Garley, '34law, Blackwell, was elected county attorney of Kay county in the general election November 3.

Robert Lowrey, '36ex, has been appointed to the faculty of Panhandle A. and M. college, Goodwell.

Charline F. Penner, '34ourn, has taken a position in the advertising department of Kerr's Dry Goods company at Oklahoma City.

A program of guidance in the use of leisure-time, rather than one aimed directly at vocational adjustments, is being tried out in Britton high school this year under direction of John R. Racketley, '34ms. "Less than 20 per cent of our graduates enter college, so they have to form cultural tastes in high school," Racketley explains. Students are given instruction in ethics, hobbies such as bridge, handball, golf and handicrafts; and appreciation of music, art and literature.

Mildred Coxon, '34as, who has been teaching at Thomas, Okla., has returned to Norman to assume a position with radio station WNAD.

1935

Odilie Burnum, '35fa, has been appointed instructor of dramatics and director of the Children's Little theater at Oklahoma City university.

Don Garlick, '35cng, has returned to the fine arts faculty of Oklahoma City university after a year of study at the Settlement Music school in Philadelphia.

Dwight Hamlin, '35as, has joined the Amadarko Daily News as advertising manager.

Amelia Rolle, '35ed, has resigned her position as fourth grade teacher in the Talihina school system to take a similar place at Poteau.

Mildred E. Lee, '35s, is now teaching third grade at Pond Creek.

Paul McClusky, '35pharm, is now representing Upjohn & Co. with headquarters at Chickasha.

Inez Price, '35s, is doing graduate work in Louisville, Ky., and after completing work for her master's degree plans to go to Japan as a Baptist missionary.

William Tutin, '35as, and Russell G. Jones, '35as, who were commissioned as reserve officers when they graduated from the University, have been assigned to regular army units at Fort Sill for a year's study.

Ernestina Gortazar, '35as, '35MA, is teaching Spanish and English in El Reno high school this year.

Awarded a special Greek scholarship, Jackson Stowell, '35as, has entered Duke university, Durham, N. C., to continue work on a master's degree.

Dr. A. C. Redding, '35MD, after a year as intern at St. John's hospital in St. Louis, has begun duties as intern at the Ponca City hospital.

Nelle Fuller, '35as, is teaching on the English faculty of the Hathaway-Brown school, Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Fuller last spring received a master's degree from Smith college, Northampton, Mass. While in Cleveland she will do graduate work under the direction of Dr. J. H. Henford, noted Milton scholar.

Dr. Fred G. Buntington, '35med, has started practicing medicine in Norman as associate of Dr. G. M. Gilton.

Julia Radledge, '35as, '35sc, became librarian and English teacher at Perry High school at the beginning of the present school year.

Ruth Somerville, '35nurse, has accepted a position in the operating department of the Riverside County hospital, Arlington, Calif.

Joyce Everett, '35ed, has obtained a social service position at Sioux City, Iowa.

Catherine Commons, '35sc, has taken a position as librarian in the Seymour High school, Seymour, Texas.

Elizabeth Klein Mayes, '35as, appeared in the cast of the miracle play, "Everyman," as presented recently in Hollywood. Twenty thousand persons saw the premiere of the sixteenth century morality play done in modern version.

F. D. Behringer, '35ex, '35MA, former secretary to Dr. V. E. Monnett, director of the school of geology, is now an instructor in government at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

Virginia Cregent, '35as, is teaching Spanish and history at Addington, Oklahoma, this year.

Theresa Huffman, '35as, is band instructor this year at Tishomingo high school. During last summer she studied at Estes Park, Colorado, with Noble Cais, noted band instructor.

Robert Kyle, '35eng, has been appointed city chemist at Ardmore.

H. Gray Hilton, '35ED,M., has been promoted from a position as teacher in Roosevelt junior high school at Oklahoma City to principal of Linwood school.

Stanley T. Tyler, '35as, who has been with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company at Akron, has been transferred to the Pacific coast. He writes: "I was transferred from the Flying Squadron in August into the sole and heel department and I am now in missionary sales work in and around San Francisco."

Russel Eiler, '35pharm, has enrolled in the College of Osteopathy and Surgery at Kansas City, Mo.

Anna Margaret Binkley, '35as, now art teacher in Putnam Heights school at Oklahoma City, has given her art training to an unusual use. She is painting on the dining room walls of her parents' home the highlights of her parents' lives from the time they were married in 1904.

Kraton Donahoe, '35ex, Oklahoma City, who studied pottery making in the University, found the pottery he made for friends so popular that he recently turned his home into a shop and decided to make a business of it. He produces several types of finishes and glazes that are said to be rare in this part of the country.

1936

Lester LeRoy Wiles, '36eng, is with the Pennova Oil and Gas company, Borger, Texas.

Doing geophysical work for the Texas company, George E. Woods, Jr., '36as, is located at Vernon, Texas.

N. Preston Wood, Jr., '36c, is a second lieutenant in the United States Marine corps, stationed at the basic school, Navy Yard, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Thomas Myron Pyle, Jr., '36, who was Eloise Cherryhomes before her marriage November 28, is a home maker in Oklahoma City.

Norman Burwell, '36bus, is with the Firestone Auto Supply and Service store, Tulsa, Okla.

Robert J. Jorden, '36c, is a royalty gager at Oklahoma City.

Employed by the Works Progress administration, Doris Speir, '35as, is clerical supervisor on a federal archives survey at Oklahoma City.

Donald R. Teis, '36eng, is working as petroleum engineer at Oklahoma City.

M. W. Mahone, '36as, is a medical student in Oklahoma City.

George G. Smith, '36, is a graduate student in the University.

John James Christian, '36as, is a student in Tulane Medical school, New Orleans.
Albert A. Othick, ’36, is an accountant at Casco, Peru.

Lenor Stephen Loerke, ’36mcd, is an intern in the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, Ore.

Ernest G. Jennings, ’36eng, is teaching in a rural school near Indianapolis, Okla.

Charles E. Jennings, ’36eng, has left the State Highway department and is now working in the geological department of the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company, at Oklahoma City.

Marguerite Louise Koerner, ’36, is teaching school in Oklahoma City.

Sam Maddux, Jr., ’36, is with a flying cadet detachment, Company A, Randolph Field, Texas.

Sidney S. Chazanow, ’36, is a research chemist for the Phillips Petroleum company at Bartlesville.

Whitley Cox, ’36, is a merchant at Tulsa, Okla.

Janie Brown, ’36as, is a home maker at Nowata.

Mrs. Lacy Boutwell Gayler, ’36, is a housewife in Norman.

A position as sales engineer for Hanlon-Waters, Inc., took Albert Charles Jensen, ’36eng, to Hobbs, N. M.

Clara McVoy Buries, ’36cd, is now a housewife at Elk City. She is a niece of Mrs. Clara McVoy Walen (Mrs. J. W. Wallen), of Oklahoma City, who was a student in the University 35 years ago.

W. G. Davis, Jr., ’36, is now an accountant with the General Electric company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Kathryna Miller Wise, ’36, is a teacher in Norman.

Julian A. Howard, ’36, is now an assistant in the botany department of Tulane university, and is working on a master's degree. He spent the summer as a ranger in Yosemite National Park.

E. Paige Mullins, ’36as, is taking a secretarial course at Chickasaw, Ala.

Ellou Henry Mayer, ’36, is doing secretarial work at McAlester, Okla.

Myron C. England, ’36med, is an intern at City Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. He writes that Doctors George Seibold, Lee Etnenlicer, M. C. England, Louis Kennedy, W. H. McKenzie and Joe Edwards met for a steak dinner November 19.

Mrs. Ora Baker Smith, ’36, is house adviser for the Resettlement Administration at Chickasha.

Herbert M. Sanford, ’36as, ’36bsmcd, is a student in the University medical school at Oklahoma City.

Geneva A. Patterson, ’36gn, is a graduate nurse at Oklahoma City.

Wesley Moore Langdon, Jr., ’36, is studying law at the University.

Harriet Hicks, ’36gn, has joined the statehouse staff of the United Press in Oklahoma City. She will operate the teletypewriter at the state capital and assist with legislative reporting. She previously had been employed by the LeRoy A. Ritter news service at the capital.

Roger L. Messman, ’36geol, is now employed by the Continental Oil company in the Ponca City offices. He will work in the geological department, studying well samples.

Harry Edwards, ’36as, of Duncan, took a position in November as radio operator on the S. S. Westmoreland, which sailed from Galveston for Europe. Edwards has worked for WNAD, University radio station, and WKY, Oklahoma City.

John H. Turner, ’36as, deskman on the Daily Oklahoman, has been placed in charge of a newly formed southwestern news division of the newspaper, with headquarters at Hobart. He will cover important news events in the southwestern part of the state and write special features. Turner was editor of the Oklahoman Daily during his last semester in school.

MARRIAGES

1928

BURNET-TUCK: Miss Grace Elizabeth Burnet, 28, and Dr. Vernon Isaac Tuck, November 17 in Oklahoma City. Phi Beta Phi. Home, Sherman, Texas.

1929

1930

MCCORD-ANTHONY: Mrs. Lucy Mae Mitchell, and Clarence Warren Anthony, ’30a, November 21, Home, Oklahoma City.

1931

TAYLOR-NICHOLSON: Miss Rosemary Taylor, and Howard A. Nicholson, ’32ex, Phi Gamma Delta.

IMAGE IS NOT AVAILABLE ONLINE DUE TO COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS.

DEATHS

Hal T. Niemann, popular University polo player, was fatally injured in a game Thanksgiving day between the Sooners and riders of the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell, N. M., the school at which Niemann completed his preparatory work and took his first two years of college work.

Niemann's horse collided with another, the front legs of Niemann's mount became entangled with the hind legs of the other and both horse and rider went down. The youth died in an ambulance on the way to a hospital.

Niemann, 22 years Major H. P. Sanders, Jr., associate commandant, said that no one was guilty of any negligence in the accident.

Niemann, 22 years old, was the son of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Niemann, of Ponca City. He was an outstanding student at Roswell and had the distinction of being the first high school student to make the polo team.

His rank on leaving Roswell was that of cadet colonel, the highest the school offers, and he was chosen by a board of army officers as one of the two ranking cadets in American military institutes, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

Niemann's horse, 22 years Major H. P. Sanders, Jr., associate commandant, said that no one was guilty of any negligence in the accident.

Niemann, 22 years old, was the son of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Niemann, of Ponca City. He was an outstanding student at Roswell and had the distinction of being the first high school student to make the polo team.

His rank on leaving Roswell was that of cadet colonel, the highest the school offers, and he was chosen by a board of army officers as one of the two ranking cadets in American military institutes, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.

This fall he was a senior and first year law student in the University, and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, an unusual distinction.
Newspaper comments on his death paid tribute to him as "one of Chandler's leading citizens, a man whom through his years of association with the people of this community, endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact."

Richard Van Duyne, '35, tex, mathematics teacher in Woodward Junior college, died in an Oklahoma City hospital in November as a result of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile.

Van Duyne, who was 27 years old, had almost completed work for a master's degree in the University. Funeral services were held at Plainview church near Weatherford.

Dr. Gaines Brightwell, '29, med, and Mrs. Brightwell were killed when their automobile blew out near Beaver, Okla. Their car was burred over a 15-foot embankment and lay unseen until a passing motorist heard the cries of the Brightwells' 5-month-old baby which was in a basket in the car.

The parents were dead, but the baby had only head bruises. The child was taken to the home of Mrs. Carrie Buttram Wails, '19, fa, Ayer, Illinois.

Mrs. Carrie Buttram Wails, '19, as, '19, fa, Ayer, Illinois, died December 2 in the University Infirmary. She was the wife of a former member of the state legislature from Woodward. She was the mother of Mrs. Carrie Buttram Wails, '19, fa, Ayer, Illinois.

Georgia Marie Ball, '29, med, 5708 Maryland, Chicago, Ill., was a former member of the Student Legislative. She was a former student nurse and was classified as a junior.

Mrs. R. W. Skinner, the former Nora Cole, '27, tex, died in December 2 in the University Infirmary. Death was due to complications which set in from a ruptured appendix. Physicians who examined him reported that the appendix was already ruptured when he was admitted to the Infirmary. He was a pre-medical student and was classified as a junior.

Chad Williams, 20-year-old student from Turpin, Okla., died December 21 at Woodward as a result of blood poisoning that developed from a glandular infection. He was the son of C. E. Williams, Woodward.

Dr. Gaines Brightwell had been practicing in Leedy for the last two years and was en route to Glenwood Springs, Colo., where he had been offered a hospital position.

TOM STIDHAM MOVES UP

(continued from page 83)

duced. Homecoming Day spectators at the Missouri game this year were amazed to see Oklahoma put on a driving attack of 72 and 50 yards without throwing a single pass, something an Oklahoma team hadn't done in years.

There have been other contributions too, most notable of which was installation of a training room with modern apparatus for taking care of the players; a central equipment office, thousands of dollars in stadium improvements secured through NYA labor, and a decided increase in player morale. Every time a Sooner team has gone on the field, it has played to win and not just to keep down the score.

Major Jones' system also calls for a frequent check and encouragement of each player scholastically and as a result, intelligibility of grades was not a worry this year and the players have been taught that it is better not to get behind in their studies than to get behind and to have to make it up by summer school attendance and correspondence.

Major Jones' record at Oklahoma:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Score</th>
<th>Opponent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1935</td>
<td>Sooners 0</td>
<td>Nebraska 19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1936</td>
<td>Sooners 9</td>
<td>Oklahoma 17</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sooners won 6.

Sooners lost 3.

Sooners 0 Nebraska 19

Sooners 0 Kansas 7

Sooners 0 Missouri 21

Sooners 20 Kansas 7

Sooners 20 Missouri 6

Sooners 0 Nebraska 19

Sooners 20 Kansas 7

Sooners 20 Missouri 6

Sooners 0 Nebraska 19

Sooners 0 Kansas 7

Sooners 0 Missouri 21

Sooners 20 Kansas 7