O. U.'s "124"

- The one hundred and twenty-four names on this page are those of persons who have become Life Members of the University of Oklahoma Association. For the rest of their lives they will be active members in the Association and will receive THE SOONER MAGAZINE. As well as receiving THE SOONER MAGAZINE which brings news of former classmates scattered throughout the world, your Life Membership helps maintain the Placement Bureau, an indispensable agency to help you and other Sooners in need of jobs. Your membership also makes it possible to organize O. U. Alumni Clubs over the state and elsewhere. The Alumni Office in the Oklahoma Union on the campus also is made possible through memberships in the Association. A Life Membership costs only sixty dollars, payable either in a lump sum or five dollars per quarter—only a little more than a dollar a month. Mail in a check to Frank S. Cleckler, secretary, University of Oklahoma Association, Norman, and be enrolled as a Life Member. The Life Fund is invested in high grade securities under the direction of Trustees E. R. Newby, Tom F. Carey and Neil R. Johnson and only the income on the principal can be used for Association operating expenses.

New Life Member

Judge Orel Bushy,'44,aw, Oklahoma Supreme Court Justice, is welcomed to the rolls of the University of Oklahoma Association's Life Members. The popular Supreme Court Justice was a county and district judge at Ada and a practicing attorney before he attained his present high position. As well, he was one of the charter members of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity at the University and remains active in the organization.
