Announcing

The approaching publication of an article entitled "How It Happened."

No, no scandal.

Rather, you will find it a fascinating account of the formation of the first alumni association of the university.

C. Ross Hume, one of the two graduates of the class of '98, has written the article. He is a charter member of the alumni association and its first secretary.

Miss Agnes Berrigan, '13 arts-sc., associate professor of English in Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical college, has written a delightfully interesting article on her experiences in three English universities in pursuit of a D. Phil.

Are there too many restrictions at the University of Oklahoma? President Bizzell discusses this problem in an informative article.

What are our prospects in football next year? Coach Ad Lindsey will tell you his opinion in an article especially prepared for The Sooner Magazine.

There will be other interesting articles in the January issue of The Sooner Magazine, which will be published January 1.

Happy New Year!

Before turning this leaf let us urge you to turn over a new leaf—if you have not already subscribed to The Sooner Magazine. Awful pun, you say?

Send $3 to The Sooner Magazine for your annual subscription and we guarantee that the pun won't be repeated.

And, until next year, The Sooner Magazine wishes you one and all a Happy New Year!
