RESERVATIONS were rolling in last month for the five class reunions to be held Sunday afternoon and evening, June 4, in the Union Building on the University campus.

First response to the new plan of having five-year reunions (a reunion for each class out of school five years or a multiple of five years, for a quarter-century back) indicates a record attendance of visiting alumni on the Commencement weekend.

The reunion classes are '14, '19, '24, '29, and '34.

The special events for alumni include a general informal reception for all visiting alumni at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 4, in the Main Lounge and other public rooms of the Union Building; a radio broadcast program at 3:30 p.m. over the Oklahoma network, and five class reunion dinners at 6:30 p.m. in various dining rooms of the Union.

Reservations for the Reunion dinner cost $1.00 per person and must be made by June 1. There is nothing else to pay. Relatives and friends of the reunion class members are welcome to attend along with the alumnus at the same price.

Joseph Bentonielli, '20, popular tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company and concert stage, has tentatively accepted an invitation to sing a group of selections for the graduating class at 3:30 p.m. in the Fieldhouse.

John Rogers, of Tulsa, University law graduate in the Class of '14 and therefore a member of the Silver Anniversary Reunion Class, will be the commencement speaker Monday, June 5.
