

THE DAILY OKLAHOMAN

Oklahoma City, Okla.
June 22, 1935
Vol. 43, No. 165
E. K. Gaylord, Editor

OBITUARY OF ALICE B. DAVIS

Death Friday closed the colorful career of Mrs. Alice Brown Davis, noted chieftain of the Seminole Indian nation. She died a victim of heart disease at the age of 82 years.

A true pioneer mother, Mrs. Davis, only Indian woman from this section to occupy a niche in Oklahoma's hall of fame, reared her family of ten children unaided after the death of her husband when the youngest was but three.

Perpetuating her spirit of usefulness are six daughters, Mrs. W. S. Key, wife of the works relief director for Oklahoma; Mrs. V. L. Kiker, wife of Seminole county's representative; Mrs. E. Aldridge, prominent Wewoka club woman; Mrs. Frank Fleet, Ada and Mrs. John Twinan, Sulphur, Mrs. Ben Locke, Oklahoma City, and two sons, John Davis, of Oklahoma City and