

5th Feb 1875

difficult to lay down, and most of them were this building was made of poles of twelve, massive appearance having a kind of chiseled top before their hollowed ends some were of wood, some of a species of mud plaster, a great many were of the same thing of a willow.

The Medicine House was only inside a tent
(A) put up in the form of a circle about sixty feet in diameter & is built by creating a forked post some 20 feet high, perhaps more for a central support around this & at nearly equal distances, and extending to the docked posts forming the ^{circum-}ferent profile of the building there are about fifteen feet in height all over of cottonwood & small cottonwood trees are tied to these outside posts, with ropes of stout rawhide bark & leaves all on them on the outside of these small wood trees are placed in a upright position, thus forming a wall of rawhide bark several feet thick in the spectacles & a couple of find a cool retreat, where they have what was going on without making themselves
of

5th Feb 1875

the tent
the central part, & there
the back is ornamental
with black
attached to the back is a bundle of cottonwood & willow bark, a buffalo rope & horse, firmly bound together being about ten inches in diameter & about ten feet in length to which
were hung strips of rawhide, muslin, stomach, feathers, shawls, & of various kinds, & quantities, the whole
these articles being arranged
of the back. Although
it might this make represent a buffalo

The central part is it the whole of the tent with the back of the
the back is ornamental
with black
attached to the back is a bundle
of cottonwood & willow bark, a buffalo
rope & horse, firmly bound together
being about ten inches in diameter & about ten feet in length to which
were hung strips of rawhide, muslin,
stomach, feathers, shawls, & of various
kinds, & quantities, the whole
these articles being arranged
of the back. Although
it might this make represent a buffalo

In the afternoon a party of about a dozen warriors, some parted & dressed with shirts only upon their bodies but wearing a hat of feathers, with back extending down the back to the ground some of them having horns attached to their - a round with & carrying a couple of long lance poles mounted from end to end with feathers, the one white & the other black at the ^{shields} _{ends} of the poles they proceeded to