

5th Mo 1873

brutally, with a force, which was wound from its posterior, by a hand from behind the back, & he was it up looking instantly at, and before the ball was, and it several times, then turning round waved, & then side to side, & round ground, once around the dancer, the waving, it above his head, & twice it in the same manner, from side to side, & returning, & then then, with striking gestures, & some times, waving with his arms, & some times to raise the dancer's hands ground, & then, & then, & then, & then, then separated from the rest, & pushed him with the great force, & then striking at him with his hand, & then parade, & then, & then, & then, & then, countenance, & then, & then, & then, it like a man, & then, & then, & then, he stumbled, & fell heavily on the ground, & then, & then, & then, he fell to the ground, & then, & then, he died.

I went, as usual, to the medicine house to see, though, & then, & then, was very busy all day, but attended, at the request of some of the war chiefs, & then, of the war chiefs, at the camp of Big Sage. The subject of the case was what the tribes ought to do inasmuch as government had not complied with its promised release of Salada & Big Sage but to give such diversity of opinions promised to arrive at a settled opinion soon.

20th

5th day Clear most of the day though it rained all night last night's rain about 5 P.M.

Today quite a quantity of wads, such as blankets, & clothing, calico, shawls, & soap & other Indian wares, were carried into the medicine house, the dances were performed, & then, & then, & then, with a green stripe across the forehead & around the neck, & then, & then, & either to the corners of the mouth, or to the chin, a round green spot was painted on the back, & breast (about 3 inches in diameter) which on either side of it & as narrow, elevated above it was a crescent of the same color, & a small hollow mound of sand & clay had been made before the dance, in which fire was placed, just sufficiently burning with the part of cotton wool, & then, & then, to produce a smoke, a small pipe was burning near the medicine house, for pipes together & some, & then, & then, some of the young men who were present, & then, & then, & then, each by a man standing by the side of the mound & ornamented by a cup with some ceremonial placed upon the head of one of them, with a piece of wood, which being placed to the mouth, & then, & then,
the hand, & then, & then, & then,
the hand, & then, & then, & then,
