

3rd Mo 1874

- 14th 1st day Rainy Remained at the Agency Pacer the Apache Chief being in Afford went out with him to his camp I moved my bed into our room, from my ambulance & spent the evening in it alone
- 15th 1st day Cloudy Attended both meetings In the afternoon meeting ventured to give utter-ence to a few words that had been with me in the previous part of the meeting, & have felt satisfied in attending to what appeared to be my duty in that respect Also addressed the Indian children in their school,
- 16th 2nd day Clear Rained last night Spent the day at the Agency writing
- 17th 3rd day Clear & Pleasant, Wrote Home No 25 P.M. Started back to camp passed through the Canon or gap in the mountain, & camped on one of the streams at the head of Cache Creek
- 18th 4th day Cloudy but Pleasant, Arrived at camp about 1, o'clock P.M. found it somewhat enlarged by the coming in of other bands of Kiowas, At now appears to be well authenticated that the Surveyor who was killed up the river a short time since, & attributed to Kiowas, was murdered by Cheyennes, & it is a little remarkable that, while there were three of them together two of whom were entirely unarmed that when they separated, the one who was armed with a Navy Revolver should be the one killed, I had learned by the Comanches some days since, that they supposed he was killed by the Cheyennes but the Surveyors themselves are now well satisfied that it was done by them, thus
