

Methvin Institute,

An Indian Mission School under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South.

Anadarko, O. T., 3/30 1897

Deborah C Battey
Wife of Thomassy.

Your letter to James Mooney was handed me yesterday. I have read with great interest all that you have written for Thomassy. If still living he will remember me by name of "Audelle" a captive mexicon staying with Napawat's family.
I was at that time as complete a blancket Indian in habits, customs superstitions as any Indian in the Kiowa tribe. I have wished often since I have found out better that I could have known at the time what a good man Thomassy was while he worked here for the uplifting of the Indians. But I did not know then and could not appreciate his interest in us and his good works. But God has been kind to me and six years ago I was converted and joined the Methodist church and since then I have been