

on our way home we stop on a white fellow trapping camp and I sleep with this wound boy in side the house and the other Indians with us is sleep outside. and about daybreak one of the Indians come in and told me that the others are steal lot of grubs and some furs. so I come out and scold them so they got mad and left me alone.