Now that is what the white survivors have said about this fight. I do not know whether they told the truth or not. I want to know what the Indians say about this fight. I want you to tell me, and find out for me what I want to know.

These are some of the things I want to know:

1. What Indians were in this Hayfield fight on the Big Horn River? Sioux, or Cheyennes, or both? Or were they some other Indians?
2. What tribes of Sioux, or what bands of Cheyennes were in this fight?
3. Who were the Indian leaders in this fight? (a) Cheyenne chiefs (b) Sioux Chiefs.
4. What Indians showed courage in this fight, or were very brave?
5. How many Indians were wounded, and what their names were. (a) Sioux (b) Cheyenne
6. How many Indians were killed, and what their names were. (a) Sioux (b) Cheyenne.
7. How many Indians were in this fight all together? (a) Sioux (b) Cheyenne.
8. Where were the Indians camped when they started to attack the fort?
9. Was it true that the Indians could not agree, and split up into two parties?
10. Are there any men now living who were in this fight? What are their names? Where do they live?
XXX
11. Where did the Indians bury their dead after the fight?
12. Anything else you can find out about this fight will be useful to me, and I will pay you for the information.

Please write out the whole story, just the way they tell it to you, and send it to me. And be sure to answer all my questions too.

Your friend,

W.S.CAMPBELL
