

Avoid generalizations — dramatize — be subtle, seem dumb — then the critics will hail

Paper diamonds

you, the educated will see what you are doing, & the uneducated will enjoy you —

Of course it is easier to say that the talk was gay & witty than to write gay & witty dialog — but nobody believes it — it is like the paper diamonds in the story of the robbery — say they were worth thousands — that's easy & they're only paper after all.
