

I would like to have you tell me just what Sittin, Bull said and what the others said just before he was killed. I would like to have both the Dakota words and the English translation. What does hopo mean? Does it have different meanings? What are they?