The Roes say that once when the Dakotas were attacking their town a Roe named bull Read was knocked down and stunned, but before the Dakotas could kill bull Read Sitting bull ran up and stopped them and saved bull Read's life. They say this was because Sitting Bull and Full Read both belonged to the New Dog secret society. Then did this happen? I would like to know what other Pakotas were in this fight. Was Sitting Bull chief of the New Dog society? When did he join this society? That was the society?
