

You told me that Four Horns was initiated into the order of the Merciful. What was the Dakota name for this?

When did this happen? The books say 1856. Is this right?

Where?

You say that Sitting Bull had to do the same as Four Horns. Was Sitting Bull also initiated into the order of the Merciful?

When did it happen?

Where?

What did a man have to promise or do, after he joined this order of the Merciful? Was this a warrior order, or just what was it?

How many men could belong to this order of the Merciful? What did they do? Did they have a dance of their own? Did they have a uniform of their own? What were the qualifications of men who belonged to this order? Please tell me all about it.
