

1
Winter Count 1781-

Calendar 2. Names of Winters

1781 Swimming for Buffalo

After the river ice had broke up the indians swam for buffalo that were floating

1782 - The first time they saw steel knives - This is a minute long calendar

A wise man named Steam Boat counted years by memory after S.B. died his brother in law learn so W.B. had the brain low and several other old men check the calendar Hairy Hand was the bro in law. W.B. does not know who taught Steam Boat. They used sun wise

29 pictures for the calendar they start from the center of the hide. W.B. got > this calendar when he was 29 years old he called Hairy Hand and the other old men in to check it over when he was 33,

33 It was an Englishman that brought the first knife the first white that came to the camp saw the using bone tools knives and he left and came back later with steel knives