

Three things the laws should require of every child in the public schools before that child is allowed to leave it - however early that leaving may occur under compulsory education laws - viz: -

- (1) Mastery of English Language
- (2) Knowledge of our Government, local and national -
- (3) A Trade or useful occupation

With these elementary math science etc & as much else as you like -
In High School courses should be