

They called him & he had not made up his mind then they call him over the next morning and W.B. read the way he thinks about things they will always be so he wanted to stick to his idea. Right corner they call him again they told W.B. they would pay him the next morning W.B. said he didn't know, so the men asked if there was any other way to get at the Indians, he said that was their problem. The next morning they invite the Chiefs to a big feed and they get them to sign it for $100 or some how the common people got only $1.00 after they all signed an interpreter came over and told him they had all signed and he had better now so he did to
