

May 19, 1930.

Mr. Joseph White Bull,
Cherry Creek, S. D.

Dear Mr. White Bull:

I have your letter of May 13. I am glad to hear from you and to know that you will tell me about your uncle. I hope you will push hard in this matter and think of all the important facts. I will come to get them from you soon. I will pay your interpreter. I will try to get to your home about June 6.

Just lately somebody has printed a book telling about the Crow Indian chief, Plenty Cops, and now everybody is saying that he is the greatest Indian that ever lived. I do not think we ought to let the Crows get away with this, so I am counting on you to help me tell the truth about your famous uncle. I am your friend,

W. S. CAMPBELL.

P. S. - I am sending you in this letter something for tobacco for you to smoke while you are thinking of old times.