Ms Campbell

How Kola,

I have received all the books you send me, I was sure glad of it, you have ask me to write my names on a book be long to your friend,
The book has come to the Post Office so I sign my name Indian & English yesterday, I myself, my wife & my nephew John we all are the same as when you were here. same old place to,
What make ^{me} sure happy this days,
are the books you send me.

It seems this covers the whole world, May God help you & me, so we could live longer in happy days. That's the Thanks I want to say to you,

Mrs Nubby, The post master, & Mr Spurling each they bought a book at the price $3.00

This sure made me surprise,

We are friends, we love each other, I have made little money out of my book, you have made money out of my book, I am well satisfied in both way.
