

10. Who was the sixth Indian killed?

Was he killed horseback or on foot?

In what part of the body was he shot?

On which side of the fort, east, west, north or south?

Who saved his body?

11. The white men say the body of one Indian was left on the battlefield when the Indians pulled out. What was his name?

12. You say you saved Hairy Hand. How close to the fort did he lie?

On which side, east, west, north or south?

13. What part of the fight was it in which you saved Hairy Hand, at the beginning, the middle, or at the end of the fight?

14. The white men tell of a tall Indian with a shield who crawled up close to the fort and would jump up and shoot at them. They say they killed him. What was his name?

15. The white men thought Red Cloud was leader in this fight. Was Red Cloud there that day?

I wish you would tell everything you remember about this fight because the white men say this was a famous battle. It is almost as famous as the Custer fight. No Indian has ever told the story of this fight. Therefore it will be a fine thing for our book to get this story straight and true. It will make you famous. So please tell me everything you can remember about this fight and write it down and send it to me.

There is one thing more. These wagon boxes the white men fought behind
