

15. The white men thought Red Cloud was leader in this fight. Was Red Cloud there that day?

He was there that day.

I wish you would tell everything you remember about this fight because the white men say this a famous battle. It is almost as famous as the Custer fight. No Indian has ever told the story of this fight. Therefore it will be a fine thing for our book to get this story straight and true. It will make you famous. So please tell me everything you can remember about this fight and write it down and send it to me.

There is one thing more. These wagon boxes the white men fought behind were tall. They were nearly as tall as a man.

I couldn't say but they use boxes for protection -- surely save them.

Where did the Indians go when they pulled out?

To their camp right along Rosebud.

What tribe did most of the fighting in this battle?

Hard to say as they were pretty well mixed up.

Who were the leaders of each tribe in this fight?

Their were four leaders in this fight High Back, Crazy Horse, Thunder Hawk, one Cheyenne called (Ice)

Did you fight on horseback or afoot?

I was on a foot short time. The rest I am Horseback

How close did you get to the fort?

Somewhere 100 yards.

The white men say that the Indians pulled out because the white men had breach-loading rifles and could shoot very fast. Is this true?

I don't know why. This man head their men out. Maybe that's it.

I don't know.

Did you notice the white men shooting faster than usual that day?

Yes. The Protection they made surly save them.