

I wish you would answer these questions about the fight where they killed 100 soldiers.

1. Do you know the names of the Sioux scouts sent forward to lead the soldiers out of the fort to where you were? If so, what were their names?

Sorry I didn't remember their names. There were six of them.

2. How many Indians were in that war party?

I can't say how many of them but any way there were several hundred warriors.

3. You told me you kept hidden until the soldiers came near. Were you hidden in the brush, or long grass, or timber, or in a draw?

On both sides they were behind hills.

4. What men were close to you while you were waiting for the soldiers to come near?

Five of them. Thunder with Horns, Song Zoulock, Little Bear, Runs Against, H of them.

5. Did you say anything to anybody while you were waiting for the soldiers to come near? What did you say? I want to know what you talked about, if you remember.

I told them others we must start. They are about between us. Then they all start.

6. When the soldiers came near, the cavalry were in front. Is that right?

No. The Cavalry were coming last.

7. You told me that the Oglala and Cheyennes began the fight. You told me they were farther away from the soldiers than the Minniconjou. How did it happen they got there first?

I don't remember saying this. The three bands were all mixed. but when they start for them I think I think I got there first & struck one. he is a Minniconjou. The second was a Minniconjou too.

8. Did the Minniconjou rush the cavalry, or the foot-soldiers first?

They rush the foot soldiers first.

9. I was told that the foot-soldiers lay down behind some rocks, and the cavalry went back up the hill above the foot-soldiers. Is that right?

No. All the cavalry men got off their horses & let them go. Then they mixed up with foot soldiers. They all lay down. That's the part.

10. Did the Sioux fight the foot-soldiers behind the rocks on foot or horseback?

All on horse back.

11. How did Bull Eagle get hit?

Three of the soldiers gave bait & one start for them. Bull Eagle went first, when he reach them he was going to strike with his bow. he was hit.

12. When Bull Eagle got hit, was he fighting the foot-soldiers or cavalry?

When he was fighting the foot soldiers.
