

✓
were tall. They were nearly as tall as a man.

I couldn't say, but they were for Protection. Boyer surely save them

You say the Indians pulled out about noon. Who told them to pull out?

I heard lots of them, I only remember two of them. High Back, Red Bear, Thunder Hawk, Crazy Horse

What did he say?

Where did the Indians go when they pulled out?

To this camp right along Rosbuck.

What tribe did most of the fighting in this battle?

Hard to say as they were pretty well mixed up.

Who were the leaders of each tribe in this fight?

There were ⁴ leaders in this fight. High Back, Crazy Horse, Thunder Hawk, One Cheyenne. Called (See)

What weapons did you carry in this fight?

Arrows, Spear,

Did you fight on horseback or afoot?

I was on a foot short time, the rest I am horseback.

How close did you get to the fort?

some where 100 yards

The white men say that the Indians pulled out because the white men had breech-loading rifles and could shoot very fast. Is this true?

I don't know why this man head this men out. Maybe that's it. I don't

Did you notice the white men shooting faster than usual that day?

yes, I know.

The Protection they made surely save them.