

he did this twice more and the third time there were two enemy in front of him and so he had to run away fast.

W. B. caught a Sioux and he said that they had to run fast when they got up a little way they got off their horse and started shooting at the enemy.

When they stop they all start to shoot both sides. A flatt head started up and W. B. said it was a good time to strike the enemy so W. B. started for the enemy and struck a man the 2nd Sioux to strike was over a way back. This enemy ~~was~~ had a gun and pistol.

Pic # 13.

This was one of the bravest things W. B. did - the hardest thing to do. The bullet hit the bottom of the barrel on the barrel.

at the time W. B. hit him the man ducked and shot so he could not hit W. B. He has a spear before and a young man wanted to trade with him so he traded that was not the sign of a society - He had two names one is "Dressed"

The gun W. B. had was once six shot and that was a gun the one he got when 100 soldiers were killed. W. B. had no medicine in his time. The horse was a dapple gray. This was the fight when sitting Bull was shot in the arm.
