

The Flathead was a brave man after W. B. got to the crowd and looked back and the Flathead was coming so W. B. shot and knocked him down and then got up again and a Sioux started for him but stopped when he got to him and got on his horse and the flathead shot his horse and was then the flathead was killed.

Then another flathead came out and W. B. and "Pretty Varied Eagle" started after him but the Flathead was shot by a Sioux from the ranks behind W. B.

Pic #14

Bluff in the face & Red shield was the 2nd and when R. S. hit - he was shot in the leg the 3rd was Bull Head and he carried a shield that caught an arrow that went in his flesh about 1 in. W. B. hit the 4th time. W. B. was going to shoot but his gun would not shoot and the Flathead shot an arrow but W. B. dodged other just as the F. H. got another arrow ready W. B. hit him with a gun in the forehead down and W. B. jumped on him and a Sioux came up and shot the F. H. there was some bead work in the F. H. head and so he got the scalp there was some other man that wanted the other half, this man was hit by eagle or White Tail" after this the Sioux were chasing the F. H. back