

with him. The last words he used was that "Who ever joined must have a good gun and six shooter, they did not join immediately but went home and asked his father about it and his father said it was up to him. W.B. wanted to do some more brave thing ~~but~~ and he knew this would be a good chance to do something after they heard how badly they were thinking it over and after his father said to do what he wanted to do so there were several boys came to see W.B. that night and so they called the med. man and he told them to move their teepee to the center of the camp and they would sing there all night and the next day have every thing ready and I six shooters loaded and 5 arrows and be ready to leave the next day. They were to bring all their paints - with them. They had everything ready there and in that teepee they brought some sage - snake plant and they sang all night and the next morning the med man brought out the med and they were going to try it out so the announcer called out all the people and ~~they~~ he wanted someone to shot out no one would shot so the med man read he would so he went out and the boys started around in a circle with W.B. leading and when they got around the 4th time the med man shot W.B. in the side and then they ran around the camp with Ours Horn leading and they kept this up until they had all been shot when Ours Horn was shot the med man said so what I told you and so he pickt up some dirt
