

The men told the indians they were from the black hills they were in a 4 horse team wagon and they staid in a tent.

They brought them home and old man Duespre was intper, so they decided to let them go if they would go back home they were living on beef so the indian gave them some sugar and flour & coffee. but no ⁴⁴⁸ gun back.

That way they know they a hunting buffalo was because they had dressed hids, with there brand on the hid.

one of the whites tell the indians that the
