

read the same thing
to him.

W.B. never remembers of having days when he was afraid.

W.B.'s mother gave advise she told him
to hang on horses if it was a mare hang on to until it had a colt
and if it was a filly harm him to run & if it was a colt keep it and some day his nabber will need help and he could give it to them.

His grandmother & aunt
told him the same thing Every thing has gone
true the same true
