

The example set by Sitting Bull was followed by other good hunters by their donations to the less fortunate ones.

When the hunting party reached home, the noble act of kindness of Sitting Bull was announced and he was made a member of Buffalo Society.