Dear Mr. Gilman:

I was happy to get your kind letter, so full of interesting information, and the newspaper clipping you sent. Thanks very much. It was very good of you, and I am sure that you enjoyed talking things over with the old-timers. And I certainly appreciate the fact that Mr. Jordan read my Sitting Bull, and that you like my books. I have tried to tell the truth as I saw it, and it is always gratifying to know that those on the inside find that their knowledge ties on to what I have been able to gather.

I was glad to learn of your good work in the "Driftwood" column, and shall be on the lookout for it. The sample makes one wish for more.

With your permission, I shall make true copies of your letter, and file them with the historical archives here.

Yours very truly,

W.S. CAMPBELL
