

There will be no objection to making this material accessible to you should you desire to come to Washington to consult it. Owing to the crowded condition of the Archives Section, however, it will be necessary for you to submit a written application some weeks in advance of the time when you desire to begin your work in order that a desk may be reserved for you.

Sincerely yours,

Lytle Dennett

Historical Adviser