It is a romance which taxes ones credulity. ~~but~~ but it is so logical & consistent when one becomes aware of his character. & of the work he is now doing. That although he says he lived among the Red Indians of the Northwest. 3500. years ago. one cannot do other than accept that statement. in ferentially corroborated - by research & also accept the unusual of his earth's life drama

If you ever have occasion to be in Washington - would you call upon my son?
he is in charge of the Studio at "Sloans"
