Dear Mr. Thomas:

I want to thank you most heartily for your long and interesting letter in answer to my questions about Sitting Bull. What you say of his character, and the manner of his death is just what I wanted and hoped to hear.

I shall certainly look up all of the references you gave me, and wish to thank you for your generous offer to use what parts I can from your published work. When I have had the time to read these you may hear from me again.

Yours sincerely,

W. S. Campbell
