Dear Sir:

Your cousin, Miss Margery Quigley of Montclair, New Jersey informs me that you have had long experience of the West when it was new. The old West is my hobby, and I give as much time as I can to reading and writing about it. Anything you can tell me of your experiences will be mighty helpful and welcome.

Just now I am trying to get together some new facts about the Sioux Indian, Sitting Bull, and I have been thinking that you may have seen him or known him somewhere. Can you tell me anything about him? If I publish his life, as I hope to do, I shall be glad to give you credit for any information you may give me.

Although I am known by the name of my step-father, I write under the name of my own father Heston.

Please let me hear of your adventures.

Sincerely yours,

W. S. Campbell
