

Notes

I

1. Where was Sitting Bull born?..... Sitting Bull was born at Woo-ho-ta-la, just a few miles below Bushhead S.W. Sub-station. The reason they call it Woo-ho-ta-la ~~was~~ his ancestor's used to bury their food there.

2. How old was One Bull when Sitting Bull adopted him?

Sitting-Bull's oldest boy was born same time One Bull was born, and he died at three years of age. and he adopted One Bull at four years old in place of his deceased son.

1857

3. I have been told that Sitting Bull travelled far. Where did he go? Who went with him? What was the farthest south he went? What was the farthest north? What was the farthest west? I would like to know all about his travels and the people he visited.

Bulls

Goose River 1851

The farthest south he ever went was when he visited the Sicangu's at Maga-Wakpa. The farthest north is, when he went to visit Majhor Welch or Wahu-Keza-hanska in Canada. Long Lance
 He also went to visit the Siha <sup>Blackfoot</sup> Wapiti, at Blackfoot and Sitting-Bull held council with Chief Kangi-si and Chief Wapli-waste. Wood Eagle
 The farthest west he went was when he visited the Crow-Indians at the foot of the White-Mountains and held council with Chief Kangi-wakan. Medicine Crowfoot
 Other places he has went, but this are all that One-Bull could remember. Crow
