

One Bull's memoirs

note it

76

after the ~~the~~ Custer fight

~~after the hands a~~ ~~#1340~~
again

the soldiers fought us at Slim Buttes where <sup>some</sup> women and children were killed.

This fight was ~~known~~ ~~by~~ ~~the~~ ~~name~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~Black~~ ~~Legion~~ known by the name of Gugue Keytake. Letting with upraised hands. Letting Bull had kept this man one whole summer and one winter. He went back to his race in an and in good spirit excellent health. He came back to Letting Bull's people - waging war against them.

Soon after we hunted buffaloes north of Missouri River - feeding our children.

When ~~what~~ ~~we~~ ~~were~~ ~~hunting~~, Gen. Miles came upon us with his soldiers and <sup>again</sup> fought us.
Bad Hair's son was killed. White Bull my brother was shot in the arm. A mixed blood Sioux by the name of Eugene Bruguier was the interpreter for the general.

From there we went toward East and