

One Bull's memoirs

note it
after the

76

~~after Let's hand a~~ ~~#1340~~
again

the soldiers fought us at Slim Buttes where <sup>some</sup> women and children were killed.

~~This fight was known by the name of~~ ~~Yugae Keytake~~
known by the name of Yugae Keytake.

Setting Bull had kept this man one whole summer and one winter. He went back to his race in <sup>and in good spirit</sup> excellent health. He came back to Setting Bull's people - waging war against them.

Soon after we hunted buffaloes north of Missouri River - feeding our children.

When ~~what~~ we were hunting, Gen. Miles came upon us with his soldiers and <sup>again</sup> fought us.
Bad Hair's son was killed. White Bull my brother was shot in the arm. A mixed blood Sioux by the name of Eugene Bruguier was the interpreter for the general.

From there we went toward East and